VAUDEVILLE'S CHEEHEST COMEDienne

Detroit's own Stella Mayhew, vaudeville's cheeriest comedienne is the headliner announced at B. F. Keith's Temple, Theatre, Detroit, for the week starting Sunday matinee, July 19. Miss Mayhew, bright star of many musical comedies and a popular feature in vaudeville, has a legion of friends in Detroit, where she formerly resided. She will offer a program of exclusive songs written for her by Paul Gerard Smith and Billie Taylor. Other features, include: "The Test," one of the surprise hits of the season. It is a drama by Ballard MacDonald with Glen and Richards, and a cast of twelve. Franklyn Ardell, in his up-to-the-minute laughing comedy, "The Wife Saver"; Jones and Rea, sure-fire comedians in a feast of fun entitled, "The End of the Line"; Bob LaSalle, in songs, stories and steps; the Powell-troupe in a big wire novelty; Lady Alice's Pets, aristocrats of animaldom and the pictures.

Man With Cancer

For the man with a cancer. It's a message of hope. Consult a good surgeon. But forego the dope.

Anticipatory

She—Your lips certainly look nice. He—Just talk about things that may be used against you later—Georgia, Tech Yellow Jacket.

Who Wouldn't?

"I wish I had enough money to buy an." She (slyly)—What would you do if (quickly)—Travel.

Cynic Not an Author.

"Do you like cynic?" "That's too old for me to like. Cynic is a lesser and not an author."

Criticism

Two men in London were discussing a certain novelist. "She's a wonderful writer," said one. "Yes," replied the other, "the mystery to me is where she gets her marvelous lack of knowledge of life."

A Misanomer

A tailor was asked about his better half. "What d'ya mean 'half'?" he exclaimed. "She's double what I am. I'm only a tail and she's a tartier."

SOUTH FARMINGTON IMP. CLUB PICNIC

The South Farmington Home Improvement Club members and their families held their first annual picnic at Nankin Dam July 12, 1925.

"With bathing, dancing and visiting with congenial friends and overflowing baskets of good food to eat, the time to return home came all too soon for many."

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Merle Soper and family, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Koso and daughter, June, Mr. and Mrs. David Measel and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Meteyer and daughter, Cora, Mrs. Rudolph Kharl, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hofmann and family, also Mr. Hofmann's father and friend, Mr. and Mrs. John Hill, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. McIntyre and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Damon, the Misses Amanda and Victoria Markham, and Bernice Cotterel, Messrs. William Cotterel and Silas Galnor.
