Gifted Impersonator
to Delight Audience at the Chautauqua

Helen Waggoner, gifted dramatic interpreter, who will appear at the coming Redpath Chautauqua here, presents, with discriminating artistry, a panorama of vivid impersonation sketches.

She is exceptionally skillful in these character impersonations. They stand out with startling reality. Varied types of people, recreated by her art, become clear-cut impersonation portraits.

In her program Miss Waggoner will combine a series of short sketches with the complete production of a one-act

HELEN WAGGONER

play. In the play she finds opportunity to cover an entire cycle of the emotions—humor, pathos, anger, love —each presented with the sure skill of a true dramatic artist.

Miss Waggoner's work is characterized by brilliance and dramatic drama. It has been praised, both by the public and the press in every part of the country.

Pure Breds Pay

Contentment shines upon the brow Of Farmer Brown. Says he,
"I used to keep scrub cows, but now my pure bred cows keep me."

Why He Got the Flute

"How do you like your new room?"
"All right, except that the man in the flat below is learning to play the flute."

"You ought to get a saxophone."
"I did; that's why he got the flute."

The old fashioned gink who used to grow a generous crop of alfalfa on his chin now has a grandson that goes about with a mustache that looks like a dab of courtplaster on a wart.

A Michigan editor arises to remark that a man can see a silk stocking forty rods away in dense traffic; while out in the wide open country he can't spot a freight engine using forty box cars for a tail.

First Class Horseshoeing

We specialize in Saddle and Track Horses

We do not go out to your premises and shoe your horse as we find through our many years experience as horse shoers that it is impossible to do a first class job of shoeing without the necessary equipment which can not be moved from place to place.

We are equipped to do anything in the line of wagon repairing, general repairing and all kinds of wood work.

OUR AMBITION

IS TO GIVE THIS COMMUNITY A THOROUGH, DEPEND-ABLE REAL ESTATE SERVICE—A SERVICE THAT WILL STABILIZE AND BUILD UP VALUES IN A SANE AND IN-TELLIGENT MANNER.

This service cannot be rendered at its highest degree of efficiency, in a community as active as this unless there are a number of men working together—each specializing in one particular class of property.

We are now prepared to render you and the community this superior grade of specialized service.

We have recently been fortunate in acquiring the services of De Los Hamlin, H. A. Seeley and Howard Staman, all residents of Farmington and Arthur D. Smith of Lake City, Mich., who will soon bring his family here.

If you have property in this district that you want sold at a fair price, come and see us.

If you are in the market for a home, a farm or an investment, come and see us.

Remember a specialist becomes an expert and an expert, who appreciates his moral obligation to his client, will point out facts and possibilities, both good and bad, that are usually overlooked by the average buyer.
