

HOW

COINAGE OF SILVER WOULD SAVE TREASURY MONEY.—Some time ago it was announced that the United States treasury would seek to put silver dollars into circulation to a greater extent than has prevailed for some years. Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Charles S. Dewey reveals the reason. In speaking in Boston Mr. Dewey said that a dollar bill costs 1.7 cents for printing and it lasts about four months. A silver dollar costs 1 cent for minting and it lasts indefinitely, says the Pittsburgh Gazette-Times. If 40,000,000 silver dollars are put in circulation to replace bills there will be an immediate saving of $1,000,000 a year. He remarked further, "Mr. Mellon is vitally interested in creating savings." A million dollars saved to the United States treasury is of not less value than $1,000,000 saved in any other enterprise, and the shrewd financier is seen in the discovery of what some might think small a leak as not to be worth both-ering about.

How Colonial PostalSystem Was Organized

In the English colonies in America before 1833, such postal facilities as existed were supplied by private enterprises. In 1830 the general court of Massachusetts took the first step toward the establishment of a government postal system. In Virginia such manner was required to convey the dispatches, as they arrived, to the next plantation, and so on. In 1872 the government of New York established a monthly mail to Boston, and this practice was followed in other colonies. Benjamin Franklin was identified with the early interests of the colonial post office. In 1737 he was appointed postmaster of Philadelphia. In 1755 the delivery of letters by penny post was begun. In 1755 the colonies combined to establish their own post office and to pay the necessary officials. The Continental congress appointed a committee to devise a postal system, which went into effect July 26, 1775. Benjamin Franklin was unanimously appointed postmaster general.

Modern Lad's Question

A little boy from a distant city accompanied his father on a visit to the old family home in a small town in Missouri. "Here," said the father, pointing to the old-fashioned dwelling, "is where your daddy, your Uncle Jack your Aunt Carrie and your Aunt Alice all were born." "How is that?" inquired the little boy. "Did this used to be a hospital?"

In the Circuit Court for the County of Oakland in Chancery. Robert Churches, Plaintiff vs. No. 12423

George A. Duggan, the unknown wife of James Vance, Margaret McLean Duggan, Lovell Goodman, Eleazar L. Goodman, Delia A. Goodman, the unknown wife of Samuel G. Hart and the unknown wife of David Hart, or the unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns of each and every of them, Defendants.

At a session of said Court held at the Court House in the City of Pontiac, County of Oakland, State of Michigan, on the 18th day of July A. D. 1925.

Present, Hon. GLENN C. GILLESPIE, Circuit Judge.

On reading and filing the Bill of Complaint duly filed in said cause, and the affidavit of Clinton McGee, from which it satisfactorily appears to the Court that the defendants above named, or their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns are necessary and proper parties in the above entitled cause; and

It further appearing that after diligent search, inquiry and investigation it cannot be ascertained, and it is not known whether the persons named in said Bill of Complaint as defendants, or any of them, are living or dead, or where he, she or they may reside if living, or whether the right, title, interest, claim, lien or possible right has been by them; or any of them assigned to any person or persons, and if dead whether he, she or they have personal representatives or heirs living, or where they or some or any of them may reside, or whether such title, interest claim, lien or possible right has been disposed of by Will; and further, that the present whereabouts of such persons, their heirs-at-law, personal representatives, devisees, legatees and assigns, are unknown and the Post Office addresses of none of them can be ascertain, nor can it be ascertained whether any of them are minors or incompetents:

On motion of Pelton and McGee, attorneys for plaintiff:

IT IS ORDERED that the appearance of each and all of the foregoing defendants be entered in this cause within three months from the date of this Order and in case of their appearance, or the appearance of any of them, that they cause their answer to the Bill of Complaint to be filed, and a copy served upon the attorneys for plaintiff within fifteen days after service upon them, or their attorneys, of a copy of said Bill, and in default thereof that said Bill be taken as confessed by the said defendants who shall fail to comply with the requirements of this Order.

It is further ordered that the said plaintiff cause this Order to be published within forty days in The Farmington Enterprise, a newspaper printed, published and circulating in said County, once in each week for six weeks successively, or that plaintiff cause a copy of this Order to be personally served upon each of said defendants herein, at least twenty days before the time prescribed for his, her or their appearance.

GLENN C. GILLESPIE, Circuit Judge.
