BRIDGE LUNCHEON

A very pleasant "Ladies Day" was enjoyed at the Northland Country Club, Wednesday afternoon. About forty ladies were entertained at a bridge luncheon with nine tables at play. Score winners receiving excellent prizes. This is the beginning of a series of events the ladies are planning for members and guests during the coming season. Four members and one guest from Farmington were, Mrs. Clarence Bickling, Mrs. Harrison Johnson, Mrs. Arthur Lamb, Mrs. H. N. McLean and Mrs. Spencer Heenev.

Mrs. Nettie Bates and brother, Henry Negus of Augusta, Kans., arrived Wednesday afternoon to visit with their niece and husband. Mr. and Mrs. Emil Gitzel, nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Leach. Also their brother-in-law, Charles Leach. They made the trip by automobile. Mr. Negus is a former resident here, and his many friends will be glad to see him again and renew old friendship.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thornton enjoyed a motor trip to Petoskey, Mackinaw and other northern points, returning home Tuesday accompanied by their daughter, Miss Gladys Thornton who has been spending part of her vacation at Petoskey.

FARMINGTON LADIES ENTHUSIASTIC PASSENGERS

The Hazel B. No. 2 left last Saturday for Telegraph Creek and returned yesterday afternoon. The passengers making the trip were full of enthusiasm declaring that the five days had been full of enjoyment. While the grandeur and beauty of the scenery along the Stikine was the outstanding feature of the river trip, other pleasures. The weather was good, the boat accommodations most comfortable and the meals delicious.

Arriving at Telegraph Creek they went by motor through the Canyon of the Tahltan up to the lava beds to the old Indian village of Tahltan. This trip was described as one continuous thrill. A dance was given at the Hudson's Bay Hotel on one of the nights that the boat was in. On the return trip the boat tied up near the Great Glacier giving the passengers opportunity to traverse the glacier for a mile or so. The boat tied up again at Kirk's place for the famous fishing found there.

Those making the trip were: Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Galvin, their sons, George and Eugene. Mrs. Galvin's sister, Miss Lulu Satpleton and her niece, Miss Helen Brownell of Duluth, Minn. Mrs. S. C. Barrington, Mrs. J. G. Grant, Mrs. W. H. Barrington and son, Billy, of Wrangell.

Miss Alice Delano of Towanda, Penna., an old time friend of Rev. Corser and of Mrs. Josephine Mason of Wrangell, and her friend Miss Mary L. Beck of Elmira, N. Y.

Miss Emily H. Butterfield, an artist from Detroit, and her friend, Miss G. A. Aschenbrenner formerly of Detroit, but now of California and Miss Butterfield's cousin, D. N. Hosie, a lawyer of Vancouver, who had a motion picture outfit along and took pictures of the trip.

Dr. G. S. Hanes, a noted surgeon of Louisville, Ky., who arrived on the Admiral Rogers Saturday morning in time to take passage on the river boat. Dr. Hanes is returning south on the Rogers tomorrow morning and like his fellow passengers considers that the trip to Alaska with the side trip up the Stikine is one of the most interesting and worth while trips to be had on the continent.

SEEING "MY MICHIGAN"

W. A. Pangborn, Harry Bartlett, Harry Young and Roy Cox returned last Friday from an auto tour of Michigan that embraced a large portion of the northern part of the state. They left here last week Monday, taking in the interior towns enroute to Alpena. From there they proceeded to Mackinaw City where they crossed over to the upper peninsula. Traversing its length they visited many points of interest. At Iron Mountain they visited Ford's big lumber mills, power dams and other plants. The return trip was made via Chicago.

"CODE OF THE WEST" IS THRILLING PICTURE

The west is a fruitful field for fast and furious films, and there is no better or more thrilling picture than "The Code of the West" which will be on the screen at the Community Hall on Tuesday. The so-called "westerns" are highly educational as well as entertaining pictures, they present a phase of our American life which is fast disappearing. "The Code of the West" is one of the best pictures of its kind and should be seen by all picture lovers. It is good for children and grownups.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

For the pleasure of Miss Dorisire Banta, who is to be a September bride, the Misses Marian Thayer and Barbara Empson entertained the members of the "Pleasure Seekers Club" and other friends at miscellaneous shower at the home of the latter on Thursday. After a delightful social afternoon, dainty refreshments were served and the guest of honor was presented with many tokens of the happy occasion.

LADIES AID

Miss Mae Foster will be hostess to the members of the Ladies Aid of the M. E. Church at her home on Lakeway Drive Thursday, Aug. 27. This is an important meeting as plans for their bazaar and other activities of the coming year will be discussed.

Mrs. Joseph Graham, Mrs. Mary Carey and Mrs. Archie Cairns attended the Pennel School reunion Saturday. About 150 old schoolmates, teachers and friends were present.

BUY YOUR HOME SITE NOW!

A tremendous Subdivision and Building Boom is headed this way—one that will make you forget about the acreage boom of the past two years.

Never again will YOU have an opportunity to choose from such a wonderful assortment of desirable SITES.

Every one of them will sell for double these prices within three or four years and will increase 50% within one year.

Not only that, but some of them have natural landscape beauties and strategic locations which can never be duplicated at any price.

Here are a few choice selections:

A magnificent wooded landscape containing one acre in the exclusive "Crosman-Marquis" Hills just Northwest of Dr. Marquis' Lodge and adjoining the beautiful 14-Acre Site valued at $56,000. The price is $6,000 with 20% down. A prominent Farmington business man, familiar with the new "Farmington Woods" development considers this lot easily worth $2,000 more than their finest valued at $10,000. He is right. We also, have four more large sites in this exclusive district at prices ranging from $3,000 to $4,500.

Another highly restricted, centrally located site containing 1.37 Acres. Has all Village improvements and about 150 feet of the Rouge River at one of its most picturesque and heavily wooded points. Price $4,000 with 20% down. To many this is the finest building site in or near Farmington.

In Builder's Park No. 2 just south of the New Grand River "Cut-Off" on Division Avenue are a few unsold lots restricted to single residences of standard construction and full basements, the cost to be not less than $4,500. These lots will have all Village improvements. They are high and dry and run less than four to the acre. Price $700 with $100 down. Folks will be glad to get them next Spring at $1,000 each.

Remember, we list every fairly priced property we can get because, in no other way, is it possible to give the buyer a thorough, dependable service.
