

EVENING SERVICES
TO BE RESUMED

The evening service will be resumed at the Methodist Church on Sunday next, during the summer months it has been discontinued. With the arrival of the fall the full program of the church will be taken up with a revival of interest and activity. The pastor will preach at both services, speaking in the morning on "The Poisoned Spring" and at the evening service on "Texts That Have Made History."

This Sunday closes the conference year of the church. On Tuesday the pastor will leave for the seat of the annual conference, which will be at Flint. The year closed with the annual meeting and quarterly conference on Tuesday evening. Reports read at that meeting showed a healthy progress in all the departments of the church life. A reduction has been made of the building fund debt during the year. The current budget shows all bills met. The membership increased by a net gain of fifty new members. Various societies and departments of the church presented reports all of which reported advance and stability. The church anticipates a new church year with a bigger program and greater additions to its membership.

The Methodist Church endeavors to serve all the community with a helpful service and ministry. In a real sense it is a community church; it tries to do things for the people as a whole as well as for individuals.

Its membership is made up of people from many Protestant faiths, and in its public and personal service no denominational distinction is made.

At the same time it desires not to encroach upon the rights of other faiths or churches, desiring only that the larger measure of prosperity shall be enjoyed by every branch of the Lord's work.

BIG GATHERING OF SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS

Nearly four thousand Sunday Schools of the state are interested in the big gathering of Sunday School workers and educators at Detroit, November 3 to 5 this fall. It is Michigan's first Biennial State-wide Convention promoted by the Michigan Sunday School Council of Religious Education. Few Sunday Schools will fail to have some representative at the meeting, directly or indirectly, bringing back to them the help and ideas put forth at this meeting.

The Convention is to the Sunday Schools of the state what the State Teachers' Convention is to the public school teachers; not so much a program of business or of controversial discussion but three days packed with contacts with international thinkers in the field of character building through religious education. The platform and discussion groups will fairly bristle with suggestions for building a Christian community co-operatively.

is operated by one man as is the case on this division. There is a rear door opening and closing of which is controlled by the car operator from the front vestibule. The seats are comfortable and neatly upholstered.

The car has both steam and electric heating devices. During moderately cold weather electric heat will suffice and in severe weather both can be used if necessary.

An automatic attachment to the controller prevents the car being started with a jerk. The current is thrown on slowly at first. When the motorman's hand is off the control lever the air brakes are automatically set. The car can not be started by the motorman while the door or doors of the car are open.

The company has made a start in the right direction. With the car making through trips from the Junction to Pontiac without a change at Orchard Lake an ideal service would be given.

The company will shortly put the same kind of car on the Northville-Wayne run.
