FATAL MOTOR CYCLE

ACCIDENT
Peter Dommicker of Livonia, aged 50, was so seriously injured in an accident Sunday night that he died shortly after. He was riding in the side car of a motor cycle driven by his son-in-law Howard Melow that collided with an auto at the intersection of Farmington and Six Mile roads.

We share none of the prejudice against the two-dollar bill. It is still welcome at the sanctum of subscription.

BIG FAVORITES AT

DETROIT TEMPLE

Maude Powers and Vernon Wallace, big Detroit favorites and Jean Bedini, America's foremost juggler, share headline honors on the bill at B. F. Keith's Temple Theatre starting Sunday matinee, September 13. Powers and Wallace offer their new act, "Georgia," a sequel to their old vehicle, "Georgia On Broadway." Their new act is a delightful story of the South, sweet with the fragrance of old Georgia, with plenty of music and song. They have an excellent cast in support. Jean Bedini offers his latest contribution to vaudeville, "A Juggling Travesty," and he is assisted by Blutch Landoff, Miss Nan and a flock of girls. Others listed: Mazie Clifton and Billie DeRex, late features of "Greenwich Village Pollies;" Paul Cunningham and Florence Bennett in a snappy musical flash entitled, "Behind Bars of Music," with Mooney and Churchill, Webster Taylor and Arthur Parent; Claude and Marion in their laughable skit, "Still Arguing;" Miss Ruby Norton, international song bird; Diero, master piano accordionist; McKee and Glegg presenting "The Champion Lady Cyclist of the World;" a Hal Roach two reel comedy entitled, "Lady Sane Jane" with Glenn Tryon in the title role and the usual screen features.

FRESHENING BREEZES

What has become of the old-fashioned bricklayer who used to start out in the morning to lay more brick than any other man on the gang?

Our idea of a hick town is a place where they still have a timetable in the town depot.

The gentleman who gets out the financial report for the state must have just finished reading a blue-sky prospectus.

eW want you to understand that's no statute under the sink. That's the plumber.

And Now in Closing

NOTICE!

---TO---

Small
Investors

Next week, in this space, we will announce the price and terms on lots in a small tract of land near by.

The owner, now in Florida, wants quick action.

The price will be about one-half of what most subdividers are getting.
