

The Greatest of All HUDSONS at Lowest Prices in History

$1195 for the COACH

$1495 for the Brougham — $1695 for the 7-Pass. Sedan
All Prices Freight and Tax Extra

Everywhere Hudson is known as the "World's Greatest Buy." That is not alone because of its selling price. The value is in performance, endurance and low operating cost. Such qualities are outstanding long after the price is forgotten.

Hudson prices are lowest because the world's largest production of Sixes—Hudson and Essex—has made possible economical methods of manufacture. Through increase of quality, greater sales result, and volume economies that permit lower prices. There you have the reason for Hudson's leadership in value, in price, in sales.

LUTHERANS BUY

VALPARAISO UNIVERSITY

The first complete Lutheran University in America is at present being established by members of the Lutheran Synod of Missouri, O., and other states. They have taken over Valparaiso University at Valparaiso, Ind., and are transforming it into a full university under Lutheran control. Valparaiso University was founded in 1874 by Dr. H. M. Brown and has in the fifty-one years of its existence, rendered an unusual and remarkable service, especially to the boy and girl who were not able to secure a higher training at other schools. Fully 100,000 students have attended Valparaiso. Among her alumni are numbered some men and women who have attained to national prominence, such as Governor Blaine of Wisconsin, Ex-Governor Deneen of Illinois, Senators Ralston of Indiana, Norris of Nebraska, writers and leaders of great industrial enterprises of today.

Members of the Lutheran Church have been negotiating for some months for the taking over of this institution, and on September 8th, the Lutheran University Association definitely came into complete and sole ownership.

The officers of the Lutheran University are: Dr. H. A. Duemling, head of the Duemling Clinic, of Ft. Wayne, Ind., president; C. W. Dickmeyer, president of the Heit-Miller-Lau Co., Ft. Wayne, vice president; Rev. P. Miller, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Ft. Wayne, secretary; Charles J. Schoiman, treasurer of the Packard Piano Co., Ft. Wayne, treasurer. The association plans to secure at once a fairly large endowment fund and to build up a college of liberal arts and professional schools. The intention is for the present not to make it a research, but a teaching university of high educational standards.

It is interesting that the first beginnings of such a school were made over eighty years ago in Perry Co., Mo., in the frontier days of the Middle West. Lack of funds, however, and the inability of the parents to spare their children from work, these two concomitants of pioneer days, prevented the realization of that early ideal. But in part it came to fruition. The Concordia Lutheran Seminary at St. Louis, Mo., the largest seminary in America of any Protestant denomination, is the outgrowth of the first Perry County school, housed in a log hut.

Today, after poverty has been displaced by prosperity, there is a strong desire for such an institution as the grandfathers and grandmothers dreamed of. This desire is strengthened also by tradition. For Lutheranism, from the beginning, has always stood for higher education as well as for popular education. The Lutheran Reformation began in the University of Wittenburg.

A well organized appeal is under way to place the cause of the first Lutheran University in America particularly before the Lutheran churches and the people of the Central States.

Rare Find

The famous Velasquez painting "The Laughing Cavalier," recently bought by the Huntington collection, was at one time sold for $8 in Winnipeg, to Stuart Livingston. It was picked up in a second-hand shop, and as no one at the time supposed it was a genuine Velasquez, it hung in an obscure place for many years.

Honors Even

While Jimmie was indulging in a bout of boasting, "My dad is a policeman," presidential Willie, his friend laughed in scorn. "What of it?" he demanded. "Why, that's nothing. You listen to what I can tell you. Last night, my dad was arrested by your dad for speeding."
