WHAT IS THE LIVONIA CENTER COMMUNITY CHURCH?

1. Everybody's church.
2. A Christian Protestant church.
3. An interdenominational church.
4. A New Testament church—"Like the Church at Antioch," "Like the Church at Philippi," "Like the Church at Philadelphia" (brotherly love)—so is the Church at Livonia Center.
5. A church for folk like Abraham Lincoln, who gave his reason not for uniting with any church, as follows: "I have never united myself to any church, because I have found difficulty in giving my assent without mental reservation, to the long, complicated statements of Christian doctrine which characterizes their articles of belief and confessions of faith. When any church will inscribe over its altars, as its sole qualification for membership, the Saviour's condensed statement of the substance of both law and gospel, 'Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul and with all thy mind, and thy neighbor as thyself.' That church will I join with all my heart and all my soul."
6. An up-to-date church, with "The good old fashioned religion."

KLAWUHN-LUTTERMOSER

Elmer F. Luttermoser of Farmington and Miss Florence M. Klawuhn of Detroit plighted their troth and were united for their journey through life October 17th at the parsonage of the Evangelical Church, Rev. J. Bollens reading the ritual.
