

Make Your Picnic Fare Patriotic

By ELLY
Would you believe a patriotic dessert for the Fourth of July that borrows its color scheme straight from Mother Nature?

A white Bavarian cream is garnished with a frame of red strawberries and blueberries to find its flying colors. Extra fruit is served with the delicious and delicate dessert. Unflavored gelatin is the secret of keeping it light and airy. Best of all you can make it the day before the holiday and keep it in the refrigerator until serving time.

RED, WHITE AND BLUE BAVARIAN CREAM
1 envelope unflavored gelatin
1/2 c. sugar, divided
1 t. salt
2 eggs separated
1 1/4 c. milk
2-inch piece vanilla bean, optional
1 t. vanilla
1 c. heavy cream, whipped
Strawberries
Blueberries

Mix together gelatin, one-quarter cup sugar and salt in medium saucepan. Beat together egg yolks and milk; stir into gelatin mixture. Add vanilla bean. Place over low heat, stirring constantly until gelatin dissolves and mixture thickens slightly, about five minutes.

Remove from heat, stir in vanilla. Chill, stirring occasionally, until mixture mounds slightly when dropped from a spoon. Remove vanilla bean. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry; gradually add remaining sugar and beat until very stiff. Fold into gelatin mixture; fold in whipped cream.

Turn into four-cup bowl; chill until firm. Unmold. Garnish with sliced strawberries and blueberries, and serve with additional fruit. Makes six servings.

DEVILED EGGS

12 eggs
juice of pickled beets
2 bay leaves
1 garlic clove, optional
Place the eggs in cold water and let come to a boil uncovered. Turn heat down and simmer; do not boil, for 15 minutes. Remove from heat and pour off boiling water. When eggs have cooled, peel them and place in beet juice with the bay leaf and garlic. Cover and marinate, three to four days, in the refrigerator.

DEVILED EGG FILLING

Slice the peeled eggs lengthwise. Mash the yolks in a bowl and add enough mayonnaise to make a smooth mixture. For flavor variations add deviled ham, prepared French mustard, curry powder, minced green onions, crabmeat, lobster paste or chopped olives. Pipe mixture back in the halves.

CALYPSO COLESLAW

1 1/2 ounce can Mexican brand whole kernel corn, drained
4 c. shredded cabbage
1 c. cubed sharp American cheese
1 c. finely chopped onion
2 T. sliced black olives
DRESSING
1 c. mayonnaise or salad dressing
2 T. prepared mustard
2 T. sugar
2 T. vinegar
1 t. celery seed

Combine corn with cabbage, cheese, onion and olives. Blend mayonnaise with remaining ingredients. Add to cabbage mixture, tossing lightly to combine. Makes six to eight servings.

ICED TEA BY THE GALLON

Pour one quart of boiling water over 2 1/2 measuring cups of loose tea. Cover and let stand five minutes. Stir and strain. Meanwhile pour three quarts cold water into a gallon jug. Pour tea concentrate into cold water. When ready to serve, pour into ice-filled glasses and add sugar and lemon to taste. Makes about 20 servings.

HOTDOG OR HAMBURGER RELISH

1 c. chopped celery
1 c. chopped onion
3 T. butter
2 c. diced tomatoes
2 1/4 t. salt
1 t. leaf basil
Sauté celery and onion in butter in skillet for five minutes. Add tomatoes and cook until tender. Stir in salt and basil. Makes about 2 1/2 cups.

Kitchens Grow

Kitchens in new homes are slightly larger than in past years, states one research bureau. Most are L or U shaped, and 90% contain eating space. More than 90% of cabinets are wood.
