Reagan proclaims Blood Donor Month

January 1984 has been designated National Volunteer Blood Donor Month by President Ronald Reagan.

"The ever urgent need for blood and blood components increases with advances in medical science," Reagan said. "Recently developed major life-saving procedures add to the need for a safe and secure supply of blood."

"Our people's response to this increased need for blood and blood components has resulted in successful liver transplantations, the development of artificial hearts, the repair of damaged hearts, the successful treatment of

ALZHEIMER'S DISEASE AND RELATED DISORDERS ASSOCIATION hosts the program "Aging in America, 1984" at 2 p.m. Sunday in Room 150, the Science Lecture Hall of Madonna College, 34850 Schoolcraft Road, Livonia.

The program is free and open to the public. Charles S. Wolfe, director of Jewish Home for the Aged and assistant adjunct professor of psychiatry at Wayne State University, will be the featured speaker. He is a leading authority on the subject of aging and a member of the Michigan Commission on Aging.

Alzheimer's disease is a progressive, neurological disease which afflicts more than 2.5 million Americans. It is not a normal part of aging, but is the fourth leading cause of death in the U.S. claiming at least 120,000 lives each year.

The cause is unknown and there is no cure. The National Alzheimer's Disease and Related Disorders Association is dedicated to combating this disease.

Inquiries about the local chapter for persons in this area will be taken by calling 540-2373.

UNITARIAN SINGLES OF MICHIGAN meet to hear Rabbi Sherwin Wine at 8 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 8 in Birmingham Unitarian Church, 551 Woodward at Lone Pine, in Bloomfield Hills.

This program is open to all single adults in all surrounding communities.

Admission at the door is $5 for guests.

Rabbi Wine is a spokesperson of the humanistic viewpoint on ethical and social values. He is founder and national spokesperson for The Voice of Reason, a national organization in defense of the secular state. He is also founder and director of Center for New Thinking, a community forum for new ideas in the arts, sciences and philosophy.

He has written several books, and as a lecturer, is especially popular with those who espouse the single life style.

His topic for the evening is called "Being a Successful Human Being." Unitarian Singles is a non-denominational social organization. Inquiries will be taken by calling 478-3080.

COUPON TRADING group meets from 7-9 p.m. Monday, Jan. 9 in the downstairs meeting room of Farmington Hills Branch Library, 13 Mile Road, east of Farmington Road. The session is open to all persons interested in trading coupons, forms or quilts.

NORTH FARMINGTON GARDEN CLUB meets at noon Tuesday, Jan. 10 in Farmington Hills Branch Library, 13 Mile Road, east of Farmington Road for a session called "Geraniums and Show Plants."

Guest speaker for the day is John Wendland, master gardener at Oakland University-Meadowbrook Estate Greenhouses. Hostesses for the day are Lillian Allen, Mary Ann Gasser and Ginny Hale.

Rabbi Sherwin Wine
brary, 12 Mile Road, east of Farmington Road.

Program for the evening will be led by Wolfgang Koehler, of Cal & Koehler Hair Salon, who will show new styles in hair and make-up.

WOMEN OF NORTH FARMINGTON ask for reservations for their next meeting no later than Wednesday, Jan. 11.

The group will meet at noon for a gourmet lunch Thursday, Jan. 19 served by the students in Oakland Community College, Orchard Ridge Campus culinary department.

The after-lunch program will be headed by Andrew Shaw, a handwriting analyst.

Reservations, at $12 each, are taken by calling Marlon Prover, 471-4301.

All club news and announcements for this column are to be addressed to: Club Circuit, Farmington Observer, 23333 Farmington Road, Farmington 48024. The information must arrive before noon on the Monday before Thursday publication.

leukemia and restoration of the burned and injured."

For donors in this area the bloodmobiles will be at three sites during the month.

From 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday, Jan. 9, donors will be accepted in Holiday Inn, 38123 10 Mile, Farmington Hills. Shirley Samp will take appointments by calling her at 477-1911.

From 3 to 5 p.m. Monday, Jan. 9 the bloodmobile will be at First Presbyterian Church of Farmington, 26165 Farmington Road. Appointments will be taken by Barbara Snyder, 476-0547.

From 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 26 the bloodmobile will be in Bolder Hospital, 28050 Grand River. Appointments can be made with Beverly Weiss, 471-8551.

"OUR BLOOD banking service is the finest in the world and through participation in the volunteer blood program, blood donors unselfishly share the blessing of good health with those who are less fortunate," Reagan said.

"I commend to all Americans this wonderful tradition of giving that benefits us all and remind you that the need for blood continues throughout the year," he said.

Blood can be donated by anyone in good health between the ages of 17 and 65 who weighs at least 110 pounds.

It is said that in the near future computers will be as familiar in the home as TV sets are today. For those interested in an update, a one-session "Introduction to Personal Computers" will be offered at 7 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 12, in Northwest Branch YWCA, 25940 Grand River.

The workshop is designed for those who are interested in what a home computer can do for them and obtain general knowledge about how one works a computer, and how it operates. There will be hands-on opportunities during the session.

Computer terminology will be discussed as well as various types of software. Explanations and descriptions will be given on word processing, spread sheets, data collecting, and telecommunications.

The workshop is being taught by Jackie Sanders from Inacom Computer Center. Persons attending the workshop will have a $3 rebate on their registration fee available follow-up courses should they continue.

Fee for the workshop Jan. 12 is $10 for YWCA members and $15 for non-members. Follow-up courses starting the week of Jan. 26 will include basic programming, word processing, general understanding computer for parent-child teams, and logo for first- through eighth-graders.

3 named outstanding

Meghan Fallon, Jon Rajkovich and Jason Zdyrki were chosen as "outstanding students" of the class of '83 by the Kelly Kirby Teachers Association of Southern Michigan.

All three youngsters are students of Susan Nuckoll, who teaches piano to very young children in Farmington Community Center. All high scores in the class perform at an end-of-the-year recital and receive certificates of achievement by the association. A spokesman for the center said it was very unusual that three youngsters from one class be named "outstanding" in the program that includes all students from southern Michigan.

Kelly Kirby is a simple approach to the piano which uses rhythmic movement, action songs and ear training. Nuckolls has taught youngsters in the center for the past four years.

Nuckolls will be starting a new class in mid-January. Registered information is given by calling the center, 477-8404.
