

Ballet joins symphony

Kathryn Cooke will be one of the soloists when the Contemporary Civic Ballet Company performs with the Scandinavian Symphony Orchestra at 8:20 p.m. Saturday at Southfield High School Auditorium, Lahar and Ten Mile, Southfield. Cooke and Tina Habel will be featured in Pas de Quatre and guest artist, James Dunne, formerly with the Joffrey Ballet, will perform in Ballet Parleian with Amy Ureel. Rose Marie Floyd is artistic director of the ballet company and Douglas Morrison will conduct the orchestra. Cooke, who has a ballet degree from Indiana University, is now teaching as well as performing with the Contemporary Civic Ballet Company. General admission tickets are $4.50, seniors and groups of 10 or more, $4 and students $2.25. For reservations, call 535-1330 or 644-9203.
