

Gems stolen in jewelry heist

An unidentified man brandishing a six-inch buck knife robbed a shopper of $2,017 in jewelry and a small amount of cash in the parking lot of Tally Hall at Hunter's Square in Farmington Hills about 1:35 p.m. Feb. 17.

The shopper, David Paul Dangovian, 24, of Southfield told police he was leaving his parked car when he was confronted by a man asking for a light. Dangovian, who was unarmed, was taking matches from his pocket when the robber pointed the knife at him and told him to "give me everything you got," police said.

Dangovian then gave the man about $17 in cash from his pocket, two gold rings, a gold bracelet and necklace.

When last seen, the robber was running toward Orchard Place Mall, adjacent to Tally Hall, police said.

Although Dangovian said people were walking in the parking lot during the armed robbery, no witnesses could be found, police said.

Dangovian described his robber as a 28-year-old Caucasian male about 6-foot-2-inches tall and 170 pounds. He had blond hair and medium skin tone and was wearing a blue "Members Only" jacket and blue jeans.

Applications sought for preteen tourney

Applications are being accepted for the Miss Metro Detroit National Pre-Teen Pageant on July 6 and 7 at the Book Cadillac Hotel.

Girls ages 8-12 are eligible to participate. Contestants will be competing for cash awards, savings bonds and other prizes. The winner will receive a $500 savings bond, tiara, trophy and banner along with sponsorship to the Miss Michigan National Pre-Teen Pageant in Grand Rapids.

If interested, request more information and an application from Metro Detroit's Regional Director, Diana Van-Sickle, 214 Fifth Ave., Lehigh, Fla. or phone 369-4283.

Participants will gain increased self-confidence, experience in communicating with others, valuable training in self-expression and make lasting friendships with girls from all over the state, according to a press release.

Girls will be judged on talent, appearance, poise-personality and personal interviews with the judges. Included will be a stage appearance in a party dress, where contestants will be escorted by their fathers.

Purpose of the Miss National Pre-Teen Pageant is to recognize, nationally and locally, the self-expression and leadership achievements of America's preteen-agers, and to pay special honor once a year to that girl who best exemplifies these qualities, according to the press release.

The winner of the 1983 National Pre-Teen Pageant received a $1,500 cash award, personal appearance contract, seven-day Caribbean Cruise for three, vacation for three to Aruba, Lehigh, Fla. and Little Texas Ranch in the Poconos.

Advice given on financial aid

Now is the time for persons planning on entering Wayne State University in the fall to investigate the kinds of financial aid that are available.

Scholarships and financial aid are available from the university, from the state and from federal sources.

According to George Emery, WSU director of scholarships and financial aid, high school students should contact the guidance counselor at their school; returning or older students should contact WSU at 577-3378.

Early applications are advised because of the length of time it takes to collect some of the data required on the forms and the length of time it takes to process them.

Many different kinds of assistance are available. Some are based on need, some on scholarship. Some are grants or scholarships; others are loans. Each application requires different information.

Some require competitive examinations, some are open only to those pursuing particular areas of study.
