

Varied programs offered at library

By Denise A. Albrecht
special writer

During the month of March, a variety of programs will be offered by the Farmington Community Library for all ages.

For Young Adults and Adults, the Farmington Hills Branch on 12 Mile will present "Coping with PMS" 7:30-9 p.m. Thursday, March 1.

Doctors Nancy Fishman and Michael Gollub will lead a discussion on premenstrual syndrome.

Next, parents and teachers can register for "Make-It, Take-It for Adults" conducted by educator Mrs. Susan Long from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday, March 10. Participants will make games to aid in reading and math skills. Call 553-0300 to register.

From 7:30-9 p.m. Thursday, March 15 "Invitation to Calligraphy" features Patricia Hernandez, university professor and past president of the Michigan Association of Calligraphy. Register for this intriguing program by calling 553-0300.

A "Stained Glass Workshop" is slated 7-9 p.m. Tuesday, March 27. Ken Joudoun of This 'N' That store in Farmington will demonstrate and discuss this art at the Farmington Hills Library. Again, call 553-0300 to make a reservation.

At the Farmington Branch, "Careers Unlimited" will be presented 7-9 p.m. Mondays, March 5, 12, 19 and 26 and April 2 and 9 for students in 10-13 grades.

Self-exploration exercises, job possibilities, the current job market and specific skills to aid in successful employment are featured. Register by calling 474-7770 if you can attend all six workshops.

"What If? Takes to be a Model" will be presented by Susan Swirple, director of Autist's Professional Modeling and Finishing School at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 6. Register by calling 474-7770.

If you enjoy "Candles From Your Kitchen" this program will interest you as Edna Malole from Kitchen Creations demonstrates at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, March 29 at 7:30 p.m. Again registration is needed by calling 474-7770.

Preschoolers and kindergartners will find four programs designed for them in March — with no registration needed. At the Farmington Hills Branch: Monday, March 5 "Stars and Stripes" features the movie "Yankee Doodle Crickets" at 2-2:30 p.m. "Community Helpers" will be seen in two films with the policeman and fireman on Thursday, March 15, 10:30-11 a.m. At the Farmington Branch: Friday, March 9, 10:30-11 a.m. "All About Bears" offers stories and songs. "Thumbprint Animals" will be created 2-2:30 p.m. Tuesday, March 27. Parents are welcome to attend with their preschoolers or kindergartners at all of the above programs.

Recital features flute, piano

A recital featuring Cynthia Ferris, flutist, and Linette Papoff, pianist, will be presented at Madonna College, Livonia, at 3:30 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 26.

Both are faculty members of Madonna College who earned master's degrees from Eastern Michigan University. As members of the Tuesday Musical, they recently performed at the Detroit Institute of Arts at the first concert of the new season.

Works by Bach, Schubert, Debussy, Bartok and Beethoven will be performed. "Billis," a cycle of 12 poems will be recited by Francine Gariepy in French with musical interludes.

Admission is free. It is open to the public and will be held in the new recital hall on the Madonna campus.
