

No surprises: Mondale bypasses Hart attack

Campaigning in Michigan, Walter Mondale joked that he has been in the state so much that Gov. James Blanchard wants him to pay taxes.

"We're fellow Midwesterners," the former vice president told backers during a rally last week in Metro Airport, as he sought the bulk of Michigan's 155 delegate votes to the Democratic National Convention.

"I know you and you know me."
"Mr. Mondale, you couldn't lose here if you tried," shouted back a union supporter.

THE PREDICTION held true Saturday as Michigan Democratic caucuses gave the Minnesotan 51,292 votes toward the presidential nomination.

Sen. Gary Hart of Colorado came in second with a total of 33,456 votes.

The Rev. Jesse Jackson ran third with 14,261 votes. Those uncommitted to any candidate cast 495 votes in that direction.

Considered an important state, Michigan so far is one of the largest and most industrialized states to award its Democratic delegates. It was a make-or-break state for Mondale, who relied heavily on organized labor's support.

It was also a key state where the Rev. Jesse Jackson was testing whether blacks would follow the leadership of Mondale-backer Detroit Mayor Coleman Young or switch to him.

HERE IS how Oakland County congressional districts voted in Saturday's caucusing:

18th Congressional District: Farmington, Farmington Hills, West Bloomfield, Bloomfield Township, Bloomfield Hills, Birmingham, Rochester, Avon Township, Oakland Township and Troy; Mondale, 2,507 (44.8 percent); Hart, 2,833 (50.63 percent); Jackson, 192 (3.43 percent); and Uncommitted 28 (4.6 percent).

17th Congressional District (Southfield, Redford Township): Mondale, 5,234 (49.99 percent); Hart, 3,690 (35.24 percent); Jackson, 1,465 (13.99 percent); Uncommitted, 43 (4.1 percent).

7th Congressional District (Oxford, Addison, Lake Orion, portion of Oakland Township): Mondale, 1,899 (46.89 percent); Hart, 829 (20.47 percent); Jackson, 1,297 (32.02 percent); Uncommitted, 21 (5.2 percent).
