It's Reagan, Hart in Oral Quarrel call-in poll This week's Oral Quarrel asked leadership that this country needs. Yes, I believe that is who I would vote for.

Farmington and Farmington Hills residents: If the presidential elec-tion were held today, who would you vote for? Why did you pick that candidate? Following are the responses.

Well I really don't know. I think Gary Hart would be a good candi-date. I really don't know why.

I don't have any specific person in mind but I will say this. The Democratic Party seems to be very divided while Reagan has support from quite a few conservative and groups high up. It leads me to be-lieve that Reagan will definitely win it in '84. That doesn't necessar-ily mean that's my choice but that is the situation. is the situation.

I would vote for Ronald Reagan.

I would vote for President Reagan, and one of the reasons is he is trying to cut back on aid to some of the people, the parasites in the inner city who are on welfare generation after generation. I think he is doing a good thing in cutting back on the services and aid to them.

Ronald Reagan. He is doing a 100-percent job, and I think he is the only one who can put this coun-try back on its track. He is a man of all seasons.

I would, first of all, vote for any Democrat because I do not believe Reagan tells the truth. My first choice is Walter Mondale, his experience and by what he has said on television.

Gary Hart. He reminds me of John Kennedy. If the election were held today, I ould vote for Ronald Reagan. It would vote for Ronald Reagan. It seems the Democratics can't make up their mind on what they want to do. They keep changing their sto-rior.

Because I think he is the only one who can beat Reagan, I would vote for Gary Hart.

DID YOU know that when the Birmingham Eccentric was first published, it was believed to be the only newspaper in the world with this name? The name was adopted from a secret club comprised of nine young bachelors in town. The paper did so well right at the start that within a few months, it was able to buy out its only competitor, the Birmingham Post.

zens to be relieved of confiscatory taxes. For the prudent to retain the savings of their frugality. For the unfortunate to be helped to escape from the slavery of modern day welfare. For volcing our yearning for a return to basic values.

President Reagan, hands down. My stocks and holdings have done way better since Carter was sent back to Plains. Also all the Demo-crats do is give our money away to those who are looking for a free lunch. ٠

President Reagan all the way, Among other things for lowering horrendous taxes and for his deter-mination that our country be prop-erly protected. We like what he has accomplished so far in spite of un-believable obstructions, posturing politicians. We are better off under his leadership.
