

Monday, April 2 will be the starting date of art classes offered by Visual Arts Association of Livonia (VAAL).

'Breadmake' workshop set

Registration is open at the Northwest YWCA, 2540 Grand River for workshops in foolproof bread baking. Each "Breadmake" session is not just a demonstration but a "hands on" class. Each participant will take her bread home ready to pop into the oven after the session. All supplies (bowls, ingredients, aprons) are included in the class fee, as well as a 100-page booklet of recipes.

YWCA instructor Lynda Murray will cover information on nutrition and a wide variety of things that can be done with the basic dough recipe.

Workshops are 1-2:30 p.m. Wednesday, April 18, or Wednesday, May 16. Class fee is $8 for members and $8 for non-members. For registration, call 337-8500.

The classes are held at its new location, Jefferson Center, Room 22, 9501 Henry Ruff, Livonia.

Day and some evening classes will be taught in figure drawing, watercolor, oil, oil portraiture and mixed media.

For those artists who wish to work independently from a live model, a studio session will be available. Saturday watercolor and oil painting workshops will be taught by Eddee Joplich and Jerrine Hahsburg both award-winning artists who are members of Farmington Artists Club.

VAAL is supported in part by the Livonia Arts Commission. Beginners and advanced students are invited to obtain a spring term schedule by calling Lee Skerrett at 422-4889. VAAL is a non-profit organization.

Vying for title

Kim Schwanké, Farmington High School's homecoming queen and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schwanké of Farmington, will vie for the title of Michigan Homecoming Queen.

The state finalist will be selected in ceremonies conducted Saturday and Sunday, March 31 and April 1, in the Detroit Athletic Hilton.

Michigan's homecoming queen will receive a cash scholarship and a trip to compete with queens from other states for the title of America's Homecoming Queen this summer in Memphis, Tenn. Schwanké is sponsored by Focal Point, Farmington High School Booster Club, Albion Industries, Dr. Bruce D. Lorenz and Kanark Appliance Servicing Company.

Choir stops here on tour

The Judson College Choir will perform a concert of sacred music at 5 p.m. Sunday, April 1, in Redford Baptist Church, Grand River and Seven Mile Road.

The 46-member ensemble from Elgin, Ill., will perform a variety of music ranging from classical pieces, hymn arrangements and spirituals to contemporary works.

The Judson Choir travels extensively during the school year. Recent trips have included the Midwest, East and West Coast, Germany, Hungary and Haiti. The choir also records and has appeared on radio and television.

The director is Dr. Edward Thompson, professor of music, who founded Judson Choir in 1963.

Judson is a private, four-year Christian college, affiliated with the American Baptist churches. Located in the Fox River Valley of Illinois, the 75-acre campus is 40 miles west of Chicago.

Students take classes in 30 major areas of study including business administration, computer science, education, pre-law and pre-med studies.

The music program offers studies in voice, piano, organ, winds, brass, handbells and choir.

SAVE TIL 6! Because Saturdays through Thursdays, if you're seated by 6 p.m., you get your choice of 10 delectable finger entrees - Fresh Catch, Chinese Sauté and more. Plus Charlie's Chowder, House Salad, Hot Homemade Bread, beverage and dessert! $7.95

Obscure & Eccentric classified ads

Benjamin Franklin designed many of the devices and vignettes used on the Continental currency notes and printed currency for the colony of New Jersey. He was to busy making paper money that he inserted a Want Ad in the Philadelphia Pennsylvania Gazette in 1736. "The Printer hopes irregular Publication of the Paper will be excused a few times by his Town Readers, on consideration of his being at Burlington with the Press, labouring for the Publick Good to make Money more plentiful"
