

Littler elected as Lions governor

David E. Littler of Farmington Hills was elected governor of Michigan District of the International Association of Lions Club.

Active with the Detroit-Midwest Lions Club for the past 31 years, Littler will oversee fund-raising efforts of the district comprised of 81 Lions Club claiming over 2,500 members throughout Wayne and Monroe counties.

Named to succeed Roy Cairns of Royal Oak, a member of the Highland Park Lions Club, Littler's election took place at the Lions' annual district convention, a three-day event held at the Hyatt Regency Hotel, Dearborn.

One of the state's largest, District 11-

A-1 is the Michigan Lions' top fund-raiser contributing over one-half million dollars a year to Lions-sponsored projects.

A non-profit organization, Michigan Lions are committed to the support of select programs created to provide services that aid people who are blind or have severe visual impairment or hearing problems.

Littler will be installed in office in July along with other Lion district governors from throughout the world at the organization's annual International convention to be held in San Francisco, Calif.

Owner of Littler Printing Co., 20815 W. Chicago, Detroit, Littler is a retired colonel in the U.S. Air Force. A decorated veteran of World War II, Littler flew B-29 strike missions over Japan as a navigator-bombardier.

Tom Corwin

Sales director is appointed

Franklin Savings has appointed Tom Corwin of Farmington Hills to a newly created position of director of sales. Corwin will be responsible for developing new products for savings customers.

He will oversee a sales department similar to what is found in the insurance and stock brokerage industry. The department will develop new kinds of accounts and savings programs and seek out new customers.

The department is separate from the day-to-day operations of the bank, allowing it to concentrate exclusively on providing savings programs to new customers. This is a new approach to product sales in the banking industry.

Corwin was most recently an executive with Standard Federal Savings, and previously worked for First Federal of Detroit as well as with a Detroit financial syndication group.

He has a bachelor of science degree from Michigan Lutheran College, and has done graduate work at Eastern Michigan University.

Lawrence Johnson

Mills names new manager

Lawrence R. Johnson has been promoted to the position of quality and inventory control manager at Mills Products, Farmington.

Johnson has been employed at Mills Products for the past 18 years. Ten of those years were spent in quality control and eight years in production and inventory control.
