Hall will forego final grid year

same shoulder he injured in the Rose Bowl, Hall started. He didn't tell Schmebchler about the knee until January. Both decided the only answer was to pass up his final season.
It was a devastating blow to Hall, even though he knew lateral movement was painfully difficult. "I was never better than 70 or 80 percent" in his final season, he said.
Hope returned, however, as Hall described it, "all is not lost because I can try track. I'm on the track team right now."

AN EXCEPTIONAL ATHLETE in several sports at Stevenson, Hall is trying to make it in the decathlon, a series of 10 different track and field events. While the knee cannot stand the contact of football, it can survive straight-ahead pressures of running track.
Hall has yet to compete for Michigan. He was on the indoor team a year ago but missed the outdoor season after hurting his knee. Still, the track coaches are optimistic enough that they've convinced Hall to return for his fifth year and compete in 1985 as well as the current season.

How well Hall fares is open to conjecture. But, for him, the hope to continue an athletic career has returned. As for football, he'll always have the Rose Bowl and other fond memories.
"Yeah, I'll remember the Rose Bowl, all the wins and, mostly, my teammates," he said. "But 10 years down the road at least I know I'll be able to walk."

SPRING AND HOPE. Jokisch and Hall. Spring flourishes, hopes blossom. Some hopes will survive the torment of disappointment and heartbreak.
After all, as disillusioning as spring can be, we endure knowing that summer will arrive, sooner or later.

Bowling at Olympics?

After pleading for the past 50 years to have the game of bowling made a part of the official Olympic Games, the American Bowling Congress got some results during the past week.
For the first time the American Olympic Committee approved the 10-pin sport and thus paved the way for possible acceptance by top brass to grant the request in time for the 1988 games.

With the United States committee OK, the top body will vote at the games and convention in Los Angeles this summer and the American bowlers will be welcomed if the plan now under way succeeds.

TITLES — Bob Goike, present leader in the ABC all-events and favored to win the title, added another honor to his long list over the weekend. He won his second Michigan Major title in Lansing by conquering Bob Schaaf of Saginaw, 225, 201 in the final.

BEL-AIRE — Ed Lubanski, showed off his old-time form in the classic last Thursday night when he posted a 707 series. Even at that figure he finished in third place. Tony Stepek was high with 775 and was followed by Tom Highley with 739.

WONDERLAND — Two more members were admitted to the 700 club. Bowling in the classic, Carl Gallette posted a 767 and Bob Pulowski was the other inductee with a 717.

WOODLAND — Scoring was high during the week and three bowlers broke the 700 barrier. In the St. Edith league, Jerry Tomczak had a 266 in 713, and Tim Ross posted a 707. In the Ford league Bruce Ladd had a 703. In the women's singles, Dolores Tricke rolled a 258 in 635.

MERRI-BOWL — Bill Gergis broke the 700 barrier with a 701 and Chuck O'Rourke joined with him when he rolled 721 with the handicappers. In the ladies top league Carol Russell was high with 642.
