Walk for Israel set for May 20

Michael Feldman of Huntington Woods has been named chairman of the Jewish Welfare Federation's Walk for Israel, set for Sunday, May 20 in West Bloomfield.

Sponsored in conjunction with the Jewish community's 86th Israel Independence Day observance at the Maple-Drake Jewish Community Center, the walk will involve people of all ages in a morning of solidarity with the people of Israel.

The 18-kilometer (11-mile) walk will begin at 9 a.m. at the Hochman Federation Apartments, adjacent to the center. Walkers will be signing up sponsors to raise funds for humanitarian services in Israel.

Feldman has traveled to Israel a number of times, most recently as co-chairman of Federation's Hadraha

Graduate tests

set for May 5

Dr. Ann L. Whall

A preparation course for taking the graduate record exam or the graduate management aptitude test is scheduled at Madonna College, Livonia, beginning Saturday, May 5. Students enrolling in graduate schools must take one of these tests for admission.

The preparation course, consisting of five Saturday sessions from 9 a.m. to noon, will review the format and content of the GRE and GMAT exams, with the goal of improving student performance on the tests. Emphasis will be placed on the kinds of verbal and quantitative skills measured by the exams, including instruction and exercises to develop skill areas.
