FYA volunteers gather for potluck

Farmington Youth Assistance (FYA) staff and all volunteers who have worked in any capacity for the agency will gather for an event that will be held on Thursday, May 24, for a potluck dinner in Fairmont Park Apartment club house.

The club house, on Nine Mile Road, just east of Drake Road, was the location for last year's potluck, an event that worked out so successfully. It has been planned to be repeated by William Martin, chairperson of FYA's General Citizens Committee.

The dinner is open to all persons connected with the agency and those interested in learning about it. FYA works to prevent juvenile delinquency.

She asks for reservations before 4 p.m. Wednesday. She can be reached at 476-2737.

Hebler-Rosa

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Hebler of Farmington Hills announce the engagement of their daughter Ann Marie to H. Scott Rosa, son of Mrs. Jane McKenzie of Reading, Mass., and Dr. Richard Rosa of Roseman, Mont.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of North Farmington High School and University of Michigan employed as a marketing representative for UNICOM Software Development Group in Providence, R.I. Her fiancé is a graduate of University of Rochester, N. Y., and holds a master's degree from Northeastern University, Boston, Mass. He is a product manager for Fleet National Bank in Providence, R.I.

A June wedding is planned.
