Down memory lane

Peace, harmony and a continuity with the past are being revived in America's romance with old and cherished looks. Here in a remodeled barn, the American Oak Collection from Thomasville creates a nostalgic picture of familiar serenity. The split-pedestal table in a pickled finish is a democratic gathering place for a family meal, and American Windsor chairs are comfortable for a convivial game with friends. The geometrical pattern of the wood fretwork on the Looking Glass Cabinet extends to its sides, and behind the doors are glass shelves, interior lights and a mirror that illuminates cherished china and crystal.
