

Stencel-Rossin

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. Stencel of Farmington Hills announce the engagement of their daughter Rosemarie to Richard D. Rossin, son of Dr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Rossin of Farmington Hills. The bride-to-be is a graduate of Albion College, employed as a systems analyst with Info-Data Inc. Her fiancé is a student at University of Michigan Medical School.

A June wedding is planned in Temple Beth-El.

Sweilgard-Spring

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Sweilgard of Franklin, formerly of Farmington, have announced the engagement of their daughter Joy Ann to Richard Alan Spring, a resident of Schaumburg, Ill., son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel N. Spring of Jackson.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Michigan State University. She is employed as a furniture coordinator by Harper Grace Hospital, Detroit. Her fiancé is a graduate of Central Michigan University. He is employed as a sales representative by Reed Plastics Corp. of Albion.

The couple are planning a November wedding.

Future minded invited to open house

High school juniors, as well as men and women of all ages, interested in preparing for tomorrow's opportunities are invited to attend an open house at 8 p.m. Sunday, June 24 in Madonna College, Livonia.

Academic programs leading to associate and bachelor's degrees will be highlighted. Among such programs are legal assistant, pre-med, engineering which is offered in cooperation with the University of Detroit, medical technology and computers. For those with specific questions, faculty members will be present.

Available scholarships and financial matters will be present. Federal and state programs, including the differential grant offered to students who attend independent colleges, will also be covered.

The open house will take place in the Activities Center on the college campus.

The largest independent co-educational liberal arts college in southeastern Michigan, Madonna offers 55 degree programs and has the lowest tuition of any independent college in the state. Classes meet at flexible hours in day, evening and weekend sessions.

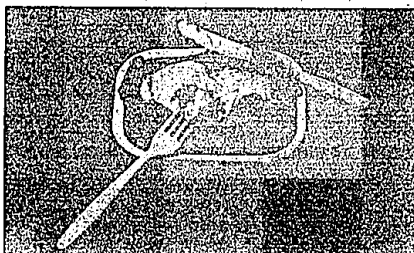

Madonna is at the intersection of I-66 and Levan Road in Livonia.
