Summer day camp continues for tots

The Summer Day Camp designed especially for 3-7 year olds by the staff at Artstart continues with weekly sessions through Aug. 13 in the Artstart facility and on the grounds in Mercy Center complex, on 11 Mile Road, east of Middlebelt.

A new theme is adopted each week, offering experiences which will stretch imaginations while youngsters explore the creative dimensions of art, music and drama.

"We provide one teacher for every six or seven children which provides outstanding supervision and ability to meet each child's needs," said Sue Ingram, director of Artstart Preschool & Kindergarten.

Camp time is from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. weekdays.

Artstart also offers day school, with extended hours for working parents, from 7:30 a.m. to 5:15 p.m.

Inquiries are taken by Ingram at 474-7175.

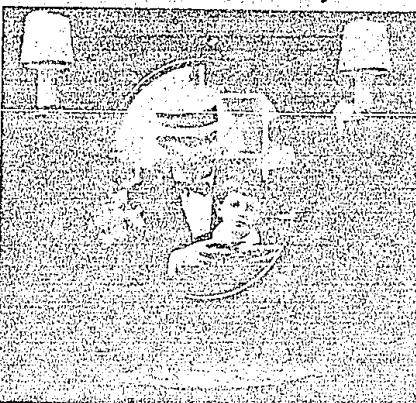

region president by Suzie Walters, a past president of the state region.
