Musical 'Godspell' to be given

The Lincoln-Center Players will present a second weekend of the musical "Godspell" at 8 p.m. Friday-Saturday, June 15-16, at the Royal Oak Campus Auditorium of Oakland Community College.

Tickets are $4 at the door. Special rates are available for senior citizens and large groups. For more information, phone 967-5792 or 967-5741.

The musical features Gerald Fishkins of Detroit as Jesus and Stephen Riddella of Rochester as Judas. Betti D'Armond, a drama instructor at Warren's Cousino High School, will direct with Bob McKay as musical director. McKay is a former trumpet player with the Maynard Ferguson Orchestra.

With the permission of "Godspell" composer Stephen Schwartz, a new song written for the film version of the musical will be presented. Entitled "Beautiful City," the song will open the second act.

Mime, games, children's charades, vaudeville, tap and soft shoe will accompany a variety of songs.

Gay '90s comedy offered

"Naughty Anthony," a Gay '90s comedy written by David Belasco nearly 100 years ago, will be presented at 8:30 p.m. Fridays-Saturdays, June 15 through July 21, at the Henry Ford Museum Theater at Greenfield Village in Dearborn.

Tickets at $5 are available daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Greenfield Village entrance or at the Museum Theater box office one hour before each performance. A combination package of candlelight dinner in the museum's American Cafe and theater tickets is available to both individuals and groups. For additional information call the Reservations Center at 271-1620.

The play tackles such modern problems as extra-marital dalliances, crimes of passion, bribery and growing up chaotic in an unchangeable world.

The setting is Chataqua, N.Y., "the only moral town in the United States." Helping to maintain that image is Professor Anthony DePew, who diligently instructs the ladies of the town in matters of moral culture.
