Proclamation

of MADONNA COLLEGE WEEK JUNE 24-30, 1984

- WHEREAS, Madonna College, a distinctive independent college committed to public service, was founded in 1947 by the Felician Sisters of Livonia; and
- WHEREAS, it provides educational leadership in the liberal arts integrated with career-oriented programs such as business administration, criminal justice, nursing and allied health, interpreting and communication with deaf persons, gerontology, social work, hospice care and religious education ministries; and
- WHEREAS, total student enrollment has increased to 3,924 students; and
- WHEREAS, with the efforts of the Felician Sisters and the generosity of donors throughout the country, the facilities at Madonna College were recently expanded to include a larger library, a lecture hall, additional classrooms and offices; and
- WHEREAS, Madonna College offers educational testing and support services to the educationally disadvantaged, and helps deaf students achieve their goals in the area of higher education; and
- WHEREAS, it encourages appreciation of the moral, philosophical, and spiritual values of the past while stimulating contemplative preparation for the future; and
- WHEREAS, Madonna College has worked with the Livonia public and parochial schools, Ladywood High School, St. Mary Hospital, Schoolcraft Community College, the Livonia Chamber of Commerce, the Livonia Bar Association, federal, state, county and local officials to improve our community,
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Edward H. McNamara, Mayor of the City of Livonia, County of Wayne, State of Michigan, do hereby proclaim the week of June 24 - 30, 1984 as MADONNA COLLEGE WEEK in the City of Livonia in recognition of the outstanding civic and educational contributions which the college has made to this community.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the Office of Mayor to be affixed this 27th day of May, 1984.
