A calculated thriller with Academy-award winner Scott as a widowed academic who moves into an old house haunted by the spirit of a murdered child.

SUSAN BLAKELY

LEE GRANT
ROYAL DANO
JOHN HEARD
MELANIE MAYRON
WILL THERE REALLY BE A MORNING? Ms. Blakely tries her hand at the late Frances Farmer's chaotic life... traced from her childhood in Seattle, where a dictatorial mother and an intellectual father play a tug of war with the young girl's psyche. The powerful drama recounts the famed actress' climb to the top, her tragic personal life and ultimate survival to emerge from her season in hell... due to her own indomitable will to live. There really will be a morning. (This Week's Pop History Poster: Who played Frances Farmer in other, 1962 theatrical film? Answer below)
