Dems boost national convention

Here's how area members of Con-gress were recorded on major roll call votes before the current summer re-cess.

HOUSE

HOUSE

PARTIES — By a vote of 226-169, the House passed a bill (IRI 5950) to speed an additional $4 million in tarrayer subsidies of the 1984 Democratic and Republican prendential nominating conventions. The Senate later approved the bill to a non-record vote.

This brings the subsidy of convention expenses to about $5 million per party. The money is raised through the optional "presidential check-off" box on tax returns that diverts $1 or $2 of many tax payments from the general fund to a presidential election fund.

Supporter Barbara Boxer, D-Callf., said House members as "patriotic Americans" about a sprove the added subsidy, which is earmarked for security at San Francisco and Dallas.

Opponent Lynn Martin, R-III, said San Francisco: and Dallas "should be subamed of themselves" for seeking the money in view of all of the economic benefits the conventions will generate for them.

Members voting yets favored a 25-percent increase in the taxpayer subsidy of this year's GOP and Democratic boundaring conventions.

Voting yet: Dennis Hertel, D-Hurper Woods, Sander Levin, D-Southfield.

Voting no: William Broomfield, R-Limingham.

Birmingham.

BAMS, DREDGING — By a vote of w55 for and 33 against, the House bases of and 33 against, the House bases of an entry of the Senate a bill (HIR 378) authoriting $9.2 billion over five cars for planning or building more than 300 U.S. Army Corpe of Engineers rejects throughout the country. This is be first large-scale water resources fill approved by the House since 1978.

Jin addition to funding projects such as port dredging and navigation to spur commerce and dam construction to control flooding, the bill provides loans for repairing water systems in aging cities. Also, it cancels hundreds of planned but outdated Corps of Engiance to ucutated Corps of Engiance of the control of the control

Job hunting series offered

Job sockers can learn the techniques of conducting a successful job search at a series of five workshop presented by Oxtland University's Continuum Center. The sessions, which may be taken individually or as a complete program, are offered 7-10 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays in the Oxtland Center on the Hochester campus.

variety of 4-H projects will be ted and exhibited at the annual land County 4-H Fair in Springfield a County Park, Davisburg, new 19 ride carnival is scheduled

A new 19 ride carmival is seneculed for the July 31-Aug. 4 event. Events include: Tuesday, USA Figure 8 race at 8 p.m., Wednesday, Kid's Day with rocket launches, Hermann's Royal Lipizzan Stallion at 8 p.m. and fire-

4-H Fair shows county efforts set national priorities for water-related construction.

Supporter Arlan Stangeland, R-Minn, said 'we are fast approaching the point where deteriorated or outdated (public works) are posing bettenecks to national economic growth."

Opponent Dick Chency, R-Wyo., said the National Board on Water Resources Policy revives a bad idea of the Carter Administration sod would deprive states of "fundamental control over their own water." ver their own water,"

Voting yes: Levin,

Voting no: Hertel, Broomfield.

Volting yes: Levin.
Volting no: Hertel, Broomfield.

WATER — By a vote of 85 for and 213 against, the House rejected an amendment placing a greater financial burden on local interests that directly benefit from federal development of water resources. The amendment, which was backed by President Rengan, was proposed to HR 3878 (above).

'Local beneficiaries are required to contribute a small part of the cost of most water projects funded in the bill, on the rationale that those who reap direct profils from the tampayers' Investment should invest some of their own money. This amendment sought to require part of the cost-haring payment to be made "up front" as a test of whether lecal beneficiaries are committed to the project.

Sponsor Thomas Petri, R-Wise, said "a lot of so-called vital projects would become less necessary the moment we ask the beneficiaries ... to help with the costs."

Opponent Virginia Smith, R-Neb., said "we have never provided (jublic works) money on the basis of the fellow that had the most at bone. We have provided it on the basis of need."

Members volting on were opposeed to requiring up-front payment of part of the local share of water resources projects.

Voting yes: Hertel, Broomfield.

ects.
Voting yes: Hertel, Broomfield.
Voting no: Levin.
Not voting: Pursell.

. SENATE

JUSTICE CUTS — By a vote of 49 for and 44 against, the Senate tabled Included are: Job Hunting Skills, Aug. 7: Writing Effective Resumes, Aug. 9: Networking, Aug. 14: Job Interviewing Techniques, Aug. 16: Putting It Together, Aug. 21: Fees are $15 for an individual workshop or $30 for the entire series. Register by calling the Continuum Center at $77-303.

works at dark; Thursday, Livestock Showmanship Sweepstakes at 7 p.m., Shotgun Willie Band from 5-7 p.m. and the USA Demolition Derby at 8 p.m.; Friday, livestock auction at 7 p.m.,

Friday, livestock a truck pull at 8 p.m.

(killed) an amendment to inflict a 4-percent across-the-board cut in the flishcal 1983 appropriations bill for the Justice, State and Commerce of epartments and the federal judiciary.

As later passed and sent to conference with the House, the bill (BR 8718) has a $11.48 billion priestag, $727 million above the House, flyers and $296 million nets the saministration had requested.

Warren Radman, R-M.H., who voted to kill the proposed cut, and "accurations that the bill sto high should be directed at the White House." These increases, in the main, were requested by the president," he said.

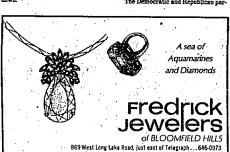

Don Nichles, R-Oki, and Justice and districts saying, "Yes, these deficits are terrible and we need to get them down."

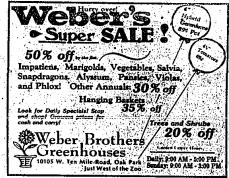

voted yes and Docalé Riegle voted no.

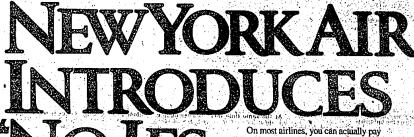

PROPAGANDA.— The Senate rejected, 44 for and 49 against, an amendment to spread America's democratic ideals throughout the world by means of educational and cultural exchanges rather than through the National Endowment for Democracy.
The amendment wought to till a $21.3 million appropriation for the year-old endowment, while increasing funding of the USIA's Fulbright and Hubert H.
Humphrey Fellowship programs by $11.9 million. It was proposed to HR
$5112 (above). The House earlier deleted all fiscal 1985 funding for the endowment, and whether the project will survive is to be determined in a HouseSenate conference.

The Democratic and Republican parties, along with the APL-CIO and U.S.

Chamber of Commerce, operate the Radical Endowment for Democracy with (aspayers' moory, developing communication programs to promote democration appropriate programs to promote democration and the control of the control of the communication from bringing and transmission of the communication from bringing and transmission from bringi is confusing. And unfair. is, you'll still get all the amenities New York Air is famous for.

At New York Air, we think this fare game That's why we're introducing our new, simple "No Ifs, Ands, Or Buts" fare policy. Now, no matter when you call for a ticket, you'll pay one, simple fare: either Peak or Off Peak. With no restrictions. No fine print. No strings attached. And even though we're simplifying our fares, it doesn't mean you'll get less for your dollar. Fact purchase fare. Or a 14-day advance purchase fare. And so on.

eral different faces for the very same flight.

The regular face. Or a 7-day advance

Like our complimentary fresh breakfast snacks on weekday mornings. Along with a complimentary New York Times.

And complimentary mixed grinks, fine wines and real New York-style food all day, every weekday. Not to mention seaf selection: Extra legroom. And 80% window and aisle seating.

