

Summer Institute

Several Farmington-area people were among the 85 Michigan high-school students and Wayne State University staff who participated in the Summer Institute for the Arts and Sciences sponsored by the State Board of Education and held July 8-21 at WSU. Area residents in the program were (from left) Van Latham of Birmingham, Karen Kozicki of Farmington Hills, Dr. Paula C. Wood of Lathrup Village, Marni Rachmiel of West Bloomfield, Sandra Beckley of Pontiac, Elizabeth Bogan of Farmington Hills, Linda Ghodolan of West Bloomfield, Michael LaGuardia of Farmington Hills and Darin Figurskey of Auburn Hills. Students were selected on the basis of aptitude and leadership qualities.

Art exhibit and sale set for Meadow Brook

Art at Meadow Brook, the eighth-annual invitational exhibit and sale of fine arts and crafts, will take place Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 18-19, in the courtyard of Meadow Brook Hall on the east campus of Oakland University in Rochester. Show hours will be 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. both days. No admission will be charged.

Booths and works of more than 100 artists will line the circle drive and the courtyard of the 100-room Tudor mansion. Artists from Michigan, Ohio, Illinois and New York will exhibit their work in such media as fiber, quilting, photography, painting, glass, soft and hard sculpture, pottery and basketry.

Refreshments will be available and Meadow Brook Hall's Tea Room will be open to those attending the show.

Meadow Brook Hall is the former home of Matilda Dodge Wilson, widow of auto pioneer John F.

Dodge. The home was built in 1925-29 at a cost of $4 million. The hall is operated as a cultural and conference center of Oakland University.

Entrance to Art at Meadow Brook is off Adams Road south of Walton Boulevard in Rochester. Additional information may be obtained by calling 377-3140.
