

Open house

The annual open house at Pine Grove from 1 to 5 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 5, includes musical entertainment and an assortment of homemade cakes topped with ice cream. Pine Grove (above), the estate of Michigan Gov. Moses Wisner, was built in 1848 in Greek revival basilica style. It features a two-story main section and a single-story side wing with a colonnade of fluted Doric columns. Pine Grove is at 405 Oakland Avenue, Pontiac. The event is sponsored by the Oakland County Pioneer and Historical Society. For more information call 338-8732.

Children's opera at OU

The Piccolo Opera Company will present "Little Red Riding Hood," a children's opera by Seymour Barab, at 11 a.m. Saturday at Meadow Brook.

The company has been performing the opera since its orchestral debut with the Detroit Symphony under Valter Poole in March 1967, and has traveled across the United States with the production.

General admission tickets are $3.50. For more information, call 377-2100.

Meadow Brook is on the Oakland University campus in Rochester.
