PLANS FOR A $25 million country club community proposed for Farmington Township were to have come before the township's zoning board of appeals on Aug. 27. Plans called for a golf course to be ringed by apartment house units, all with a view of the lake. The 160-acre site was located north of Grand River and east of Haggerty Road. George A. Duke, Jr. and Thomas A. Duke were the builders of the project.

FIVE NEW FARMINGTON Township police officers were sworn in by Township Clerk Floyd Calma. The newcomers included Gordon Ross, George Maler, Dennis Nash, Mimi Spencer and William Kocorelis.

BOYS WHO PLANNED to participate in sports in the Farmington Public Schools during the 1954-55 school year were reminded by Athletic Director Jack K. Cotton to report for physical examinations Aug. 20-27.
