Lyons, France. Ann is a soph-more at Northern Michigan University. The two girls were enrot e to a canoe trip in the Ogen aw region.

THREE BUSLOADS of senior citizens left July 16 to attend the Chesaning Show Boat.

The entire trip was pleasant and enjoyable. The excellent food served by the Methodist Church women was plentiful. Afterthe 8 p.m. dinner, the bus driver graciously drove us around for a sightseeing tour of the town.

Around 8 p.m. many thousands of people were finally seated to enjoy a spectacular evening's entertainment. Professional amateur entertainment held our attention constantly.

stantly.

The hishlight of the evening was the talented Miss Johann Castle of the Lawrence Welk Show. The next thrill was the river, steaming and music playing.

At midnight we were all ready to board our bus for home, we range to a 12:30 a.m. I for one still can't get the kinks out of my back. But I wouldn't have missed the show for all the aches. Join us next year.

EVERYTHING HAVEN'T WE?"

The best schooling, gods clothes, a comfortable home all these are important.

But don't they need a rewers to the big questions — such as Who is God? What is God? Where is God? What does He have to go with me?

Your children's sense of security and lasting happi-ess may well depend of being given good and useful nswers to these important questions.

In the Christian Sciènce Sunday School, children learn to know God, to fight a closeness to Him, and to turn to Him for the sphitual resources they need to strengthen and enrich spir lives. It is sufficient to the sphitual resources they need to strengthen and enrich spir lives. It is sufficient to the spirit lives. It is sufficiently would like to give your children? Why not bringthem next Sunday morning at 11 00 or slook.
