Musician wins scholarship

Matthew Paletz, 11, will be returning to Interlochen's music camp next summer with a scholarship he won at the camp's closing ceremonies last month. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paletz of Farmington Hills, Matthew won the Jonathan Lazarus Silote Memorial Scholarship. It was presented by Edward Downing, director of the National Music Camp in Interlochen and is given to the percussionist who has made the most progress during the summer. Matthew, a student at Warner Middle School, played percussion in the camp's intermediate band.
