PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S NETWORK has elected Joan Kahn-Schmidt, minister for Universalist-Unitarian church of Farmington, as chairperson or its steering committee for the coming season.

Others who will be serving on the committee this season are Betty Paine, executive director of Farmington Community Center, Ann Riley, Cheryl Carter, Renee Baker, Connie Walz, Sue Higgins, Gail Pohutski and Carol Widrig.

The network meets for breakfast, time for networking and a program once a month in the center. Inquiries will be taken by calling the center, 477-404.

WOMEN OF NORTH FARMINGTON invite inquiries about membership, their social and philanthropic activities planned for the coming season by calling Arlene Sumner, 651-4915, or Elaine Rousseau, 477-6840.

The club schedules luncheons, tours, speakers, card parties, or programs once or twice a month through the season. Its main fund-raiser is an annual Millionaire's Party in the spring. At the close of last season members had disbursed a total of $9,739.49 to Farmington Advisory Council, Meals on Wheels, Community Living Center, Maritime Hall, Salvation Army, the Michigan Humane Society, Farmington Community Center and Farmington YMCA. They had also filled Christmas baskets for the Goodfellow and sponsored the "Face Painting" booth for Kids Day.

DELTA ZETA AUMNAE of Western Wayne County has elected Shirley Martin of Farmington Hills as its chairperson for the season. She begins her term of office at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday in her home, hosting a dinner meeting.

Martin was affiliated with Delta Zeta sorority at Michigan State University where she received her teaching degree. She is a former Livonia teacher who has served on Farmington PTA Council, with Farmington Families in Action and has been a Girl Scout leader for five years. Other incoming officers are Barb Cairoux of Livonia, Anita Johnson of Livonia, Anne Massey of Plymouth, Audrey Ashley of Detroit, Lynda Neuroth of Plymouth and Geri Burnside of Farmington. The group meets on the second Wednesday of every month. Delta Zetas interested in joining the group are invited to call Ashley at 535-0159.

HILL AND DALE GARDEN CLUB meet at 8 p.m. today in Farmington Hills Community Library for a program called "Wild Flowers and Their Habitat." The program will be given by Grover Niergarth, instructor of biology, in Schoolcraft College.

It is the last meeting for the members before "A Country Fair in Farmington," the club's standard flower show scheduled for Friday, and Saturday, Sept. 21-22, in South Lutheran Church, corner of 13 Mile and Farmington Road. Show hours are from 2-3 p.m. Friday and from noon to 5 p.m. Saturday. Admission is free.

The horticulture division of the show is open to the general public. A copy of the horticulture divisional rules, prizes offered and categories of entry is in the office of the Farmington Observer for perusal by interested persons.

WESTSIDE SINGLES meet for a dance party from 8 p.m. to 2 p.m. Friday, Sept. 14 in Roma's of Livonia on Middlebelt between Plymouth and Schoolcraft. Admission is asked at the door. The club is now revving up for its two-year anniversary dance, set for Sept. 28 in Carl's Chop House.

FARMINGTON COUPON TRADERS meet at 7 p.m. Monday, Sept. 17 in Farmington Hills Library on 12 Mile Road, east of Farmington Road. The meeting is open to all persons interested in trading food coupons, forms and quilts.

Inquiries are taken by Alfreda Potrykus, 626-1681.

SISTERHOOD OF ADAT SHALOM hosts its annual membership luncheon at noon Monday, Sept. 17 in the Farmington Hills synagogue. The after-luncheon program is called "Fabulous Fashions for Fall" presented by Ray and Ida's.

Baby-sitting will be available by reservation. There is an $8 charge for the luncheon. Reservations are taken by Terran Leemis, 645-6767.

PLYMOUTH CHILD BIRTH EDUCATION ASSOCIATION offers a Lamaze orientation class at 7:30 p.m. Monday, Sept. 17 in Newburgh Methodist Church, 35500 Ann Arbor Trail, Livonia. The session is an introduction to the Lamaze birth technique.

A charge of $1 will be asked at the door. Inquiries are taken by calling the association, 459-7477.

FARMINGTON AREA JAYCEE WOMEN host a program for guests and potential members at 8 p.m. Monday, Sept. 17 in the library of Farmington High School.

Guests will see a slide show especially prepared for the chapter's membership drive called "The Farmington Area Jaycee Women: A Look at our Past, Our Goals for the Future."

At the same meeting, a total of $1,350 will be disbursed to representatives from Farmington Community Center, Sarah Fish Home, the Farmington Public Schools' special fund for needy children, Farmington Youth Assistance, National Burn Center and several local nursing homes.

Another $400, a scholarship, will be given to a woman in the community for assistance as she returns to school. Claudia Heinrich will be installed president of the chapter for the season. Other incoming officers are Rena Swanson and Sherrie Thomas. Membership is open to all women between the ages of 18-55. The group meets the third Monday of every month in Farmington High School's library.

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION (DAR), Quakertown Chapter, begin the new season with a noon luncheon meeting Tuesday, Sept. 18 in the home of Mrs. John Schmidt. Kathy Rutten is co-hostess for the day. Quakertown regent, Mrs. Nell Ruard will introduce the speaker, Mrs. George Ryckman, the national vice-chairman of Constitution Week and a past regent of Louis St. Clair chapter. Her topic is "We the People."

The Constitution Week display in the Farmington Hills Branch Library, set up by Mrs. Erwin Love, holds the most recent gift from Quakertown, Vol. 1 of "DAR Library Catalog." This is an index of the family histories and genealogies held in the DAR library in Washington, D.C.

Mayors of both Farmington and Farmington Hills have proclaimed Sept. 17-23 "Constitution Week" here. Offered this year for the first time are four evening meetings of the chapter, beginning Sept. 18. This group is to reflect the day group and is meant as a help for working members. For information on the evening meetings, call 471-7264.

FARMINGTON GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY begins the season at 7:45 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 18 in Farmington Branch Library, State and Liberty streets. Marie Baker Gordon, from the Ontario Genealogical Society will speak on "Tracing Canadian Roots."

Will The Peanut You Ate Today Ruin Your Day Tomorrow?
It can... if you have a delayed food allergy. Any food, even something as small and seemingly harmless as one peanut, can cause mental and physical symptoms hours or even days after ingestion. These symptoms include headaches, drowsiness, depression, stomach upset, or any one of a number of other annoying ailments. One quick blood test at Allergy Detection Clinic can help find your hidden food allergies. Call today for your free informational brochure.
