

Lillian Gish film to be shown

Lillian Gish stars in the feature-length 1919 D.W. Griffith-directed comedy "The Romance of Happy Valley," at 1 p.m. through Sunday at the Detroit Institute of Arts Recital Hall.

Tickets at $1 will be available at the door only. The current Afternoon Film Theatre series, "The Movies, Mr. Griffith," and Lillian Gish, continues through Nov. 12.

In this dream vision of director Griffith's own boyhood Kentucky home, "Happy Valley" explores the American grass-roots values of family, faith and farm.
