

Some birthday

*At least that's what Oscar Rhoton found out when he readied for work last week on the day of his 40th birthday. Owner of a Rent-A-Wreck franchise, Rhoton was escorted to work in anything but when a limo from Absolute Class pulled up to give him a ride. Giving a farewell kiss to his wife Michelle who was the scoundrel behind it all.

Commerce chief speaks at OCC

Ralph Gerson, director of the Michigan Department of Commerce, will address students and interested members of the community at the Orchard Ridge Campus of Oakland Community College on Wednesday, Sept. 19.

The program, which includes a question and answer session, will begin at 9:30 a.m. in the Smith Theatre.

Gerson served as Counselor to Ambassador Robert Strauss from 1977 to 1981 and was involved in the Tokyo Round of Multilateral Trade Negotiations that resulted in the Trade Agreements Act of 1979.

He also participated in the Egyptian-Israeli peace negotiations and served as the President's Assistant Special Counselor on Inflation.

Soon after appointing Gerson, Gov. Blanchard assigned him major responsibility in developing and implementing an economic recovery program for Michigan as Counselor for Economic Development and Chairman of the Cabinet Council on Jobs and Economic Development.

A graduate of the University of Michigan Law School, Gerson earned a master's degree from the London School of Economics and an undergraduate degree in economics and political science from Yale University.
