

Gerson talks at OCC

Ralph Gerson, director of the Michigan Department of Commerce, will speak to students and the general public at the Orchard Ridge Campus of Oakland Community College at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday, Sept. 19.

The free program, in the Smith Theatre, will include a question-and-answer session. Two campus is at 1-698 and Orchard Lake Road in Farmington Hills.

Gerson's topic will be Michigan's economic development program, according to Harvey Bronstein, business administration professor at OCC.

Prior to his appointment by Gov. James J. Blanchard in 1983, Gerson was counselor to Ambassador Robert Strauss (1977-81), involved in the Tokyo round of multilateral trade negotiations that resulted in the Trade Agreements Act of 1979.

In Lansing he is chairman of the Cabinet Counsel on Jobs and Economic Development.

Other speakers in OCC's distinguished speaker series will be William Brodhead, former U.S. representative from the 17th District who will appear at 7 p.m. Monday, Sept. 24, and Ronna Romney, Republican National Committee member who will appear at 8:30 a.m. Monday, Oct. 8. Brodhead is a practicing attorney in Wayne and Oakland counties.

Realty group hears economist

Oakland County's drive to capture more industries is off to a good start. That's what Joseph Jacobini will tell the Women's Commercial Real Estate Association at noon Tuesday in Jacques Restaurant, Telegraph north of 12 Mile, Bingham Farms. Information about the association and luncheon reservations are available from Rusty Rozman at 363-1555.
