Infant has 2 great-grandmothers

The birth of William Corey Sonnenberg made the fifth living generation on both sides of his family, many of whom are lifelong residents of Farmington.

The infant is the son of Joan and Bill Sonnenberg, born May 24 in the U. S. Army Base hospital, Fort Reilly, Kan. and made his first visit here late in the summer to meet the relatives.

His grandparents are William Lynn Sonnenberg of Westland, Kerrie See Morowa of Dearborn and Carol Hair of Walled Lake. Sonnenberg was born and raised in Farmington and owns and operates a party store here.

His great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. William Paul Sonnenberg of Farmington Hills and Mr. and Mrs. Harold See of Florida. The senior Sonnenberg was born in Farmington, and he and wife, who have lived here all of their married life, have just celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary.

The infant's great-grandmothers are Edith Sonnenberg Trombley, a resident of Farmington, and Ella See of Walled Lake.

Estel and Lila Nichols mark 60th anniversary

St. Paul Lutheran Church in Northville will be gathering place for the reception honoring Estel and Lila Nichols, long-time residents of Farmington in celebration of the couple's 60th wedding anniversary. The couple were married in Georgia, and moved to Farmington in 1942.

Among the friends and relatives attending the celebration will be the couple's children who still reside in southeastern Michigan, daughters Sharon and Monteen; sons Doyle and Dewey who are both employed with Farmington Public Schools; Donald and Clyde, both staff members at Oakland Community College; Denver, an engineer with Ford Motor Company; Neil, a technician at General Motors; and Glaxier, a dexter for Glisco Corporation; and Daniel, employed by Eagle Trucking.

Estel Nichols retired from General Motors Proving Grounds staff, and before that worked for Consumers Power and Bonnie Brook Golf Course. Lila Nichols has been an active member of the Livonia Church of God since 1945.

Mr. and Mrs. Estel Nichols

After the reception here the couple will travel to Clayton, Ga. for a reunion with southern relatives and friends.
