

Symphony begins fall season

In the first of three subscription weeks this fall with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Herbert Blomstedt offers music by Haydn, Dvorak and Berwald, along with performances by guest violinist Yumiko Horigome.

Concerts are at 8 p.m. Friday, Sept. 25, in Orchestra Hall, and at 8:30 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 26, at Ford Auditorium.

Maestro Blomstedt, music director of the Dresden Staatskapelle and conductor of the Swedish Radio Orchestra, appeared with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra last season for three weeks of concerts. Since then, he has been named music director designate of the San Francisco Symphony, a post he will take up in 1985.

Japanese violinist Yumiko Horigome makes her Detroit Symphony Orchestra debut at these concerts. Winner of the 1960 Queen Elizabeth of Belgium Competition, she has appeared with major orchestras such as the Boston Symphony, London Symphony, Amsterdam Philharmonic and English Chamber Orchestra. At the DSO concert, she will perform Dvorak's Violin Concerto, composed in 1880 and dedicated to the great violinist Joachim.

Also scheduled for performance is the Symphony in C Major, "Singuliere," by 19th-century Swedish composer Franz Berwald.

Tickets for Friday's concert are $25, $10, $15 and $10. For Saturdays, they are $10, $17, $15, $13 and $10. Tickets are available at the Ford Auditorium box office and Ticketworld outlets, including Hudson's. MasterCard and Visa charge card customers may order by calling 567-1400.

Isn't it Beautiful! Woodcliff.

Now we can unfold the magic beauty of Woodcliff, the incomparable cluster-home community. It delights the senses — like a visit to the symphony — like a Beethoven symphony — like a majestic Rodin.

Woodcliff is the epitome of beauty in housing. And, like all works of art, a limited edition.

Here, you'll find a Paradise. One of the last pockets of field area. There are only 26 of these exquisite cluster homes... and one-fourth of them have been chosen. So only a few more fortunate families can enjoy the extraordinary ambience of Woodcliff.
