"Autumn Action" entries already are coming in at the Observer & Eccentric. All you have to do to enter is clip this coupon and mail it in with your entry to: Photo Contest, Observer & Eccentric Newspapers, 36251 Schoolcraft, Livonia 48150.

First-prize winner will be awarded $100 in cash, and two nights at the Holiday Inn-Livonia West/Holiday, plus $25 in Holiday cash.

Second-place winner will be given $50, third-place $25.

Rules are:

- Color slide film must be used.
- Deadline for entry is Thursday,

Nov. 8. Use the accompanying coupon to enter.

- Location can be of your choosing, but must be identifiable as a fall setting. Please identify recognizable people.

- Contestants must be amateur photographers. Observer & Eccentric employees and their relatives are ineligible to compete.

- Entries will be returned only if accompanied by a self-addressed, stamped envelope. The Observer & Eccentric will not be responsible for any lost or damaged slides.

- Mark each slide with your name, address and phone number.

Paler joins Irish band

Ron Paler of Farmington Hills has been accepted as a member of the 1984 Marching Band at the University of Notre Dame.

Paler played the saxophone in the Catholic Central High School Band. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Ronald Paler, Notre Dame.

Library offers array of services

The Farmington Community Library offers the public time- and money-saving business and investment sources using its 400-plus databases.

Library staff can locate data on business, investment, economic, technological, medical and legal information in minutes, using computerized reference searching provided on a cost-recovery basis.

Library patrons can find all the needed information to:

- obtain leads on export or import opportunities.

- scan the latest in surveys and forecasts.

- check annual reports.

- find out about over 1,000,000 U.S. firms.

- check out competition here and abroad.

- find federal, state and local laws, rules or regulations.

- 10K reports from the SEC are on line.

- new trends in decision and management studies.

- profile industry trends.

- latest statistics and census data.

- identify trade names and obtain patents.

- get names of key corporate personnel.

- track acquisitions and mergers.

- do market research locally, regionally and nationally.

- keep abreast of newest tax laws, regulations and determinations.

- locate the latest Federal government contract bids, updates and deadlines.

- identify trade names.

- make intelligent investment decisions.

- compare key business financial ratios.

- locate a consultant or consultant's report.

- discover franchise opportunities.

- find an ad, ad agency and amount spent.

- find a phone number or zip code locally or across the country.

- data on any business employing more than 10 people.

The library also provides an electronic profile of on-going information needs that can be stored in the computer memory.

Database users are provided with printouts of relevant articles or other information each time the databases are updated — monthly, bi-weekly or weekly, depending on the database.

The Farmington Branch is located at 23500 Liberty. The Farmington Hills Branch is located at 32727 W. Twelve Mile Road.

Business seminar offered by library

"Expand Your Business Horizons with Import/Export Trade" will be the topic of a seminar sponsored by the Farmington Community Library at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

William R. Dahlin of the U.S. Dept. of Commerce, a representative of the Port of Detroit Authority, and library staff will conduct this how-to-do-it seminar in the Farmington Hills Branch Library Auditorium.

The Farmington Hills branch of the community library is at 32737 W. 12 Mile.
