

U-M Graduates Exchange Vows

Terry Jo Kropp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. Kropp of Farmington, became the bride of Randall Keith Fisher at a candlelight ceremony on July 11.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fisher of Fort Wayne, Ind.

The couple were married in Franklin Community Church, Franklin, with the Rev. William H. Fraser officiating. A reception followed in the Franklin Community Church Hall with 100 guests attending.

THE BRIDE wore a princess style A-line dress of silk organza with peau d'agne lace at the neckline and on bodice and sleeves. Appliques of the lace also accented the skirt.

and chapel length train and a wide satin ribbon on the bodice formed a bow in the back of the dress.

Her elbow-length veil fell from a headdress of lace leaves edged in pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet of stephanotis.

The maid of honor, Mary Jean Stone, and the bridesmaid, Wendy Jean Kropp, wore matching gowns featuring white lace bodices and yellow crepe skirts. They carried bamboo baskets with white mums and yellow daisies.

GARY CASKEY was the best man and Roderick Schuebler was the groomsmen. The ushers were Lee Van Ameyde, Kevin Kropp and Richard Fisher.

The bride's mother wore a beige dress with an imported lace bodice with a stand-up collar and a pleated skirt. The mother of the bridegroom wore a sleeveless, A-line dress in a shrimp color with matching accessories.

After a honeymoon in Pen Hills in the Poconos, the couple will live in Pittsburgh, Pa. where the new Mrs. Fisher will teach Spanish and French and her husband will work on a master's degree at Carnegie Mellon Tech. He also will be employed by Essex International, Inc.

The bride graduated with a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Michigan. The bridegroom graduated from U-M with a bachelor of science degree in chemical engineering.
