College offers preview

High school students will be able to experience a taste of college life when Mercy College of Detroit sponsors its "College for a Day" program Nov. 16.

Students will be able to attend special classes taught by Mercy's faculty and designed to introduce students to areas of study they may be considering.

During the one-day program, students can look at classes such as accounting, nursing, child development, computer science, criminal justice, fashion merchandising, medical technology and psychology.

Students may also choose from introductory classes in pre-law, pre-med nursing, med-tech and the honors program.

Other sessions will focus on financing a college education and forecasting job opportunities. Campus tours will also be available.
