

Raiders capture 7 records, NSL crown

By Chris McCosky

Talk about going out with a bang. The North Farmington girls swim team concluded its era of domination over the Northwest Suburban League in fitting style Saturday.

The Raiders not only won their 5th straight NSL league meet and their 12th in the last 14 years, but they shattered seven league records in the process.

Saturday's meet at Redford Thurston was the final joint meeting of the six NSL rivals. Three of the teams, Westland-John Glenn, Livonia Franklin and North will join the Western Lakes Redford Thurston will join the Tri-River League and Redford Union and Garden City are in the process of forming a new league.

The NSL has been in existence since 1964.

The Raiders not only won the final league trophy from the NSL, but 9 of 11 league records as well.

North amassed 394 team points Saturday, 192 more than second place John Glenn (193). Franklin (121), Thurston (118), Garden City (110) and RU (70) rounded out the field.

DESPITE The overwhelming victory, North coach Pat Dault felt his team fell short of its total mission.

"I think the John Glenn kids did a real nice job," Dault said. "We thought we had a chance to score 400 points. We had two disqualifications or else we would have. We also thought we had a chance to take first in every swimming event. But, the John Glenn backstroke just took it away from us."

"I'm very proud of what we did and what all the athletes on the other teams did. They gave us a real good league meet."

Glenn's Kelly Taylor won the 100-yard backstroke in 1:06.13, just edging North's Liz Worthen (1:06.53). It was the only swimming event the Raiders failed to win.

Glenn's Jamie Koester won the diving competition with 328 points.

The other events belonged to North. Jennifer Roma, Colleen Carey and Marge Cramer each won two events for North.

Cramer established league records with both her victories. In the 50 freestyle, her 25.34 outperformed North graduate Mary Manderville's 1982 record of 25.41. In the 100 butterfly, her 1:02.06 eclipsed Maurine Jewell's 1978 record of 1:02.4. Jewell is also a Raider alum.

ROWE WON both the 200 free

(2:00.20) and the 500 free (5:09.76), besting Glenn's Stephanie Gow in each race. Rowe's 500 time bettered her own league mark of 5:14.76 set last year.

Rowe set a record in the 100 free with a 55.22. That bettered the 55.41 swum by North's Debbie Hatch in 1977. Carey also won the 200 individual medley (2:16.3).

Cindy Cramer set a record in the breaststroke with her 1:10.06. The mark breaks 1:11.29 set in 1980 by Thurston's Shelly Morse.

North also set records in both relays.

Worthen, Cindy Cramer, Kathy Pierog and Amy Menelliey swam a 1:58.12 in the 200 medley relay. The old mark, set last year by North, was 1:58.8.

In the 400 freestyle relay, Marge Cramer, Jill Menelliey, Rowe and Carey went 3:47.06 to better North's 1982 mark of 3:53.92.

Title the NSL's final chapter on girls swimming. "The property of North Farmington."

Hawks 4th in WLAA meet

1:05.71; Taormina, 100 butterfly (5:17.42), and McKenzie, 500 freestyle (5:17.46).

Stevenson's Cathy Stafford also won a close duel in diving with Farmington's Katie MacIntosh, 370.6 to 365.7.

"CATHY has been diving only two years, but she has a gymnastics background that helps," said McDonald. "We hope she can help us at the state meet. She was 20th last year."

The only individuals to break Stevenson's dominance were Salem's Kristal Taylor, who won the 100 freestyle in 55.91 and Canton's Lynn Massey, who captured the 50 freestyle in 25.57.

"The final score may not reflect it too much, but we did what we had to do," said Salem coach Chuck Olson.

"The motivation was to beat Canton for second place and qualify some of our swimmers for the states." We had plenty of reasons to swim well."

"I think the league will get faster," McDonald said. "Salem worked hard, and I saw some good swimmers from the other schools."

Meanwhile, this could be the year that Stevenson sheds its bridesmaid role in the state meet.

"I THINK we're faster than in the past," said the Stevenson coach. "We're swimming

more mature and hungry. A few of them grew up over the summer. They decided to work."

"We have a chance, but Ann Arbor Pioneer will be the toughest competition. They could be first. We may have more depth, and you can't write off Bloomfield Hills. Andover. It all depends on how the other schools divide up the pie."

One thing was for certain, Stevenson defeated the Western Lakes pie and it was tasty, even without "tapering down" the good pieces.
