Celebrate the holidays as Henry and Clara did

A full slate of Christmas events is planned at the Henry Ford Estate by University of Michigan-Dearborn, including dinners and luncheon concerts in the spacious mansion rooms decorated by area florists.

Dining and music is a Fair Lane tradition dating back to 1915. Estate Director Don Werling, said "children, always an important part of holiday festivities with the Fords, haven't been forgotten." There will be a breakfast with Santa and a Santa's Workshop for them. The Christmas workshops are interpretive recreations of the experience of hundreds of children at Fair Lane from 1916 to 1928.

Breakfast with Santa is set from 9 a.m. until 11 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 8, with tickets at $5 per person. For a special treat, children can work with Santa in his workshop making ornaments and gifts. The workshops are scheduled Dec. 1 through 16. The $6 workshop fee includes materials.

The Christmas dinners were so popular in past years that early reservations are a must. Dinners will be served in the mansion Friday, Nov. 30, Saturday, Dec. 1; Friday, Dec. 7, and Saturday, Dec. 8. The evening will begin with hot mulled cider served at 7 p.m. in the gathering room, followed by a veal cordon bleu dinner at 7:30 p.m. Guests move to the music room for a Christmas concert and sing-along at 8:45 p.m. Tickets for both dinner and concert are $25 per person.

GUESTS MAY view mansion decorations. Each room will be done by a different florist following an old fashioned Christmas theme. Imaginative floral arrangements, ropings of greenery on mantels and banisters, decorated Christmas trees and waves of bright poinsettias will fill the mansion with color and artistry.

It isn't necessary to attend a dinner to see the holiday decorations. Self-guided tours with descriptive tapes in each room will run from Nov. 26 through Dec. 20 from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m.

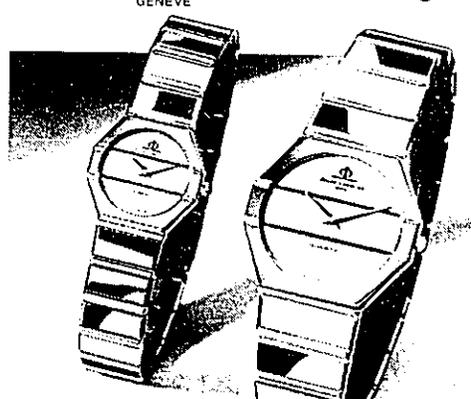

Guided tours will be conducted on Sundays, Dec. 2, 9, and 16 from 1 p.m. until 4:30 p.m. The cost of each tour is $4 per person. The gift shop in the mansion will be open from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. Monday through Friday and 2 p.m. until 6 p.m. on Sundays so visitors may browse or do some Christmas shopping.

A view of Jensen's Meadow will be available to guests at the noon Christmas luncheon-concerts in the music room. The first is Tuesday, Dec. 4, and features a turkey divan luncheon and a concert of flute and harp.

The second, Friday, Dec. 14, offers shrimp creole and vocal and piano entertainment. Salisbury steak is featured Wednesday, Dec. 19, with a vocal and piano concert. Tickets at $7.50 per person include lunch and concert.

To make reservations for any of events or for further information, call 593-5590 during business hours, 8 a.m. until 5 p.m.
