

What to wear — What to give

Maribeth Gelasco of Farmington Hills and Bernadette Hanket of Allen Park were two of the teens in Fairlane Town Center's holiday show that combined suggestions for what to wear and what to give. Both sported "Borrowed From the Boys" looks in bright plaids teamed with oversized sweaters from Limited Express. Coca-Cola telephones from Limited Express completes the fun.

Lutherans celebrate with candles, carols

Sights and sounds of glory and praise will fill the Spirit of Christ Lutheran Church in Novi this Christmas season, according to Pastor Thomas A. Scherger.

A Holy Communion celebration with candlelight and caroling will highlight Christmas Eve at 7:30 p.m. On Christmas Day, the festival will be marked by a service set to the tune of familiar carols, at 10 a.m.

"Our congregation has experienced exciting growth and change this past year, and we look forward to greeting even more people from the Novi community during the Christmas season,"

Scherger said. "Our worship themes will center around the fact that Christ has come among us, to become one of us and share our problems as well as our joys."

Spirit of Christ, located on 10 Mile west of Haggerty Road, is in the forefront of a movement to merge church bodies within Lutheranism, resulting in a new, 5.5 million-member denomination by 1988. The congregation is itself the product of the merger of two smaller churches in 1983. In less than a year and a half, it has grown by nearly 40 percent.
