

Artist to autograph book

Judge Williamson of Macon will autograph copies of her new book, "Judge's Bed," noon to 4 p.m. Saturday at Miniature Makers' Workshop, 1725 W. 14 Mile, Royal Oak. Williamson's beautifully crafted canopy beds have been exhibited at Greenfield Village, the White House and the Saudi Arabian Palace. Williamson has also taught at the Miniature Makers' Workshop, a retail store which services this rapidly growing hobby area.

Blending photography, music

"The World Set to Music," an armchair-getaway featuring Richard Verneck and his Musical Photo Paintings, will be held at 8 p.m. Saturday at First Presbyterian Church, 1658 W. Maple, Birmingham.

The event, sponsored by the Birmingham-Bloomfield Symphony Women, is a benefit for the Birmingham Bloomfield Symphony Orchestra.

Verneck, a Bloomfield Hills resident, who has appeared with local symphony orchestras and for many other organizations.

The pictorial journey, set to music, begins in the small towns and fishing villages of New England in autumn and then goes to Rio de Janeiro during Carnival.

It continues to the sidewalk cafes of Paris, Venice, the countryside of Ireland, across the ocean to Hong Kong and back across the Pacific to the Canadian Rockies and the Pacific Northwest.

During intermission, appetizers and pastries from the lands visited in the program will be served by the members of the Birmingham Bloomfield Symphony Women.

Tickets, $10 each, are available by calling 335-9653 or 626-5568.

Antique show announced

Antique dealers from Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, Franklin and Lathrup Village are among the many from Michigan in the 28th annual winter antique show and sale Friday and Saturday at the Ferndale Community Center, 400 East Mine Mile, Ferndale.

Proceeds from the show, sponsored by Scroptimist International of Ferndale, go to the Hospice of Southeastern Michigan, Detroit Zoo, Cancer Loan Closet, Youth Assistance Camp Fund and other state organizations.

Hours are 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday and 11 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. Saturday.
