SOME VIRGINIA AVENUE HOMES

A LITTLE BIT OF HISTORY...

It was 1895 when a young Max Broock, age 24, showed one of his clients some desirable farm property in Detroit. That home later became a part of what is known today as Virginia Park. Mr. Broock's company would become involved in the sale and development of many of early Detroit's best residential areas...Virginia Park in 1905, Arden Park in 1910, Joy Farms in the early 1920's, and the Detroit Golf Club, Palmer Woods and Sherwood Forest developments later in the decade.
