ALDO VAGNOZZI, a veteran Hills council-watcher, spoke on the issue at last Monday's meeting.

"I was surprised at the quickness with which the council wanted to make this major move," said Vagnozzi, who is also a board member of the Friends of the Library, a volunteer support stream.

miliage," Vagnozzi sald. "When it was brought in under the cities, we were promised that the independence of the library would be maintained and that the funding would be maintained at the voted level.

"Since that time, the library has Since that time, the library has been shortchanged, and allocated funds below that level. Therefore, I wanted to be convinced that this move will be for the improvement of the library and not dilute its excellent service to the com-munity."

The possibility that newly appointed board members might not be representative of the community isn't really vice, and indeed is probably a user" of the library system. Recent community growth has creat-ed a need for more public comment on library services, she said. Services pro-vided by the libraries have also ex-panded in recent years. "I think you need a better cross sec-tion of the communities than you'd have with four people. I think getting that kind of diversity is a good idea." of the Library, a volunteer support group. "It's not necessarily a bad idea, as long as it does not involve any change in the relationship between the Library Board and the council, and between the Library Board and the library system. "I think we have to remember that until Farmington Thomship became the city of Farmington Hills, our library was independent, with its own voted cable connection COMMUNITY ACCESS PROGRAM-MING • 12:30 p.m. — Due Process — drunk driving. • 1 p.m. — Third World Pilgrimage to South America. • 1:30 p.m. — Keeping in Touch. THE USE OF PAIN MEDICATION IN THE TREATMENT OF RHEUMATOID ARTHRITIS

On Inclusion 2014 Intentity in cases of syrains, fractures, or muscle injuries, patients often receive medicine containing codeline. If you live in Carasta, a codeline containing medicine called 222's is available off the counter, no prescription is necessary. Why don't physicians make use of these medications and others containing codeline, in treating arthritial.

It is no possible to use codeine and similar natical cotte drugs because most of the time arthritis is a long term condition. Experience has shown physicians that even a narcoit as mild as codeine, when taken over months or years, can cause addition.

Another problem with codelne-like drugs is the aids effect of disziness and loss of equilibrium; and the state of the stat
