

DAR to give awards

Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) in Michigan hosts its Spring Awards Day Tuesday and Wednesday, April 2-3, in Kellogg Center, East Lansing.

Charles Strikwerda, professor of political science at Calvin College, Grand Rapids, will be the dinner speaker. His topic: "Rights and Responsibilities — The Challenge of Citizenship."

Mrs. Clinton F. Stimpson, Michigan State Regent, will preside at the 9:45 a.m. general meeting Wednesday when awards will be given to the 57 Michigan chapters for work completed this year.

Highlight of the meeting will be the announcement of the 10 state finalists in the DAR Good Citizen competition. Mrs. John A. Collins, state chairwoman for the competition from General Richardson chapter, Pontiac, will introduce the winners and present the cash awards. The state winner will compete for the national award of a $1,000 scholarship to the college of his or her choice.

The state society will entertain the 10 finalists and their parents at a luncheon after the presentation. Speaker for the luncheon is Dr. Audrey Kirkland. Her topic is "Enlightenment on the American Indian Development."

Quakerstown Chapter will be represented by Mrs. Nell W. Hurd, Mrs. Orvis L. Henke, Mrs. Don P. Fairchild, Mrs. C. Harold Dolph, Mrs. John A. Schmidt and Mrs. Harlan K. Haskell.

Junior members serving as pages from Quakerstown chapter are Mrs. James A. Hanlon and Mrs. Dennis Wojtyla.

Women to visit Windsor

The Farmington Community Center Women's Club will travel to Windsor, Ontario, on Friday, April 12. The trip will include lunch in International Hilton Hotel in Windsor, overlooking the river and the Detroit skyline. A cash bar will be available.

Following lunch, there will be approximately 90 minutes for shopping. The hotel is within walking distance of two of Windsor's leading china and gift shops.

Transportation for the trip will be by bus leaving the Oakland Community College Farmington Road parking lot at 10:30 a.m. Return time will be approximately 3:30 p.m.

Reservations for the April 12 trip and payment must be made through the Farmington Community Center by Monday, April 8, and will be accepted as long as there is space available. Cost is $16.50 per member and $21.50 for each non-member.

Pledge getters

The high pledge-getters in Beahan Junior High School's MathaThon are Barbara Zajdel (at left) Jeff Luke, Marvin Poole, Jim Cahill and Christopher West. The participating students were volunteers who took home a book of 200 math problems and then got pledges for each problem solved correctly to benefit St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. The five high pledge-getters brought in more than $100 each and won a tote bag. Fifty-two students won T-shirts. A total of 149 participating math solvers amassed $3,522.53 for the hospital.
