

Bless you, Alan

Detroit Tiger Alan Trammell receives the keys to his 1985 Pontiac Trans Am from Bob Sellers of Bob Sellers Pontiac, Farmington.

The car was Trammell's choice for his 1984 World Series Most Valuable Player award.

Challenge of nursing course is taught

Nurses can learn how to establish a more caring environment while providing health care at "The Challenge of the Art of Nursing: The Need for High Touch in a High Tech Age," a workshop from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Thursday, May 16 in Mercy College of Detroit.

Recognizing the stresses and challenges in the fast-paced and highly demanding health care setting, this workshop offers a balance to the technical skills of the professional.

The fee for this workshop is $40 which includes registration, lunch, materials and refreshment breaks. The registration deadline is Wednesday, May 8. For more information, call the Mercy College Continuing Education Office at 592-6224.

obituaries

JOHN J. GLEESON

Mr. Gleeson, 65, of Farmington Hills died April 9.

Born in Chicago, Ill., Mr. Gleeson was a retired Chrysler executive. He was a graduate of Northwestern University where he received a bachelor of science degree in mechanical engineering. He entered the U.S. Army in 1941 as a private, became a master sergeant, attended Officer Candidate School and was discharged in 1946 having attained the rank of captain. Mr. Gleeson joined Chrysler Corp. in 1946 as a service engineer with the Plymouth Division and supervised the Master Technician Program. He transferred to the Missile Division and was one of the pioneers in the Redstone Missile Program, America's first venture into space. His last position with Chrysler Corp. was director of advance service planning. He retired in 1979 after 33 years with the corporation.

Survivors include his wife, Betty; sons, John J. III, and James M.; a daughter, Judith; brother, William; five grandchildren.

Services were April 12 at the McCabe Funeral Home, Farmington Hills, with the Rev. Doug Carter officiating. Burial was in the Veterans Garden at Oakland Hills Cemetery, Novi.
