Community band travels 'Down Memory Lane'

Older and handicapped people will be honored at 3 p.m. Sunday, May 5, with the concert "Down Memory Lane" in Harrison High School auditorium. Admission is free.

The Farmington Community Band, with conductor R. Paul Barber, will present its 12th annual concert for seniors and handicapped in cooperation with the Farmington Area Arts Commission and Farmington Public Schools.

The concert band will begin with "Festive Overture" by Shostakovich and include a performance by scholarship winner Steve Thompson, clarinetist, playing Von Weber's "Polacca." Steve is a sophomore at Farmington High School and has been a member of the band for three years. His is also solo chair clarinet with Musical Youth International and will tour the British Isles this summer. Steve is the second

- recipient of the Barbara Hughes Memorial Scholarship.
- On the lighter side, Barber has selected "Big Bands in Concert," arranged by Lowden, "Granada" by Augustin Lara, and "America the Beautiful" by Samuel Ward. March time will include John Phillips Sousa's "El Capitan" and "The Chicago Tribune" by W.P. Chambers.
- Guest artists will be Farmington Community Chorus under the direction of Jim Whitten. Musical selections from the movies will include "As Time Goes By," "Can You Read My Mind," and "Blue Suede Shoes."
